Faith & Foresight

“⁶ In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ”

— Philippians 4:6 (WEB)

Introduction - Faith & Foresight

Faith and foresight are meant to walk hand-in-hand in our journey with God. Faith helps us trust what we cannot yet see, and foresight helps us prepare for what God has promised—even before He shows us all the details. Together, they invite us to follow God’s lead when the road ahead still looks uncertain.

Hebrews 11:1 tells us, “Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.” Faith lifts our eyes past the present moment and anchors our hearts in God’s truth instead of our changing circumstances. Foresight—spiritual insight shaped by God’s perspective—then guides the decisions we make today so they line up with what God is doing tomorrow.

Scripture gives us clear examples of people who lived with both faith and foresight. Noah built the ark long before the first raindrop fell (Genesis 6). Abraham obeyed God’s call and left home without knowing his destination (Hebrews 11:8). Joseph stored grain during years of abundance because he trusted God’s warning about the famine ahead (Genesis 41). Their lives show a consistent pattern: faith listens to God, and foresight gets ready for His plan.

In this study, we’ll see that walking with God takes more than belief—it takes vision grounded in faith. As we grow in spiritual foresight, we stop merely reacting to what’s happening around us and start responding to what God has spoken within us. Faith gives us the boldness to move forward; foresight helps us move with wisdom and purpose.

Breakfast Edition Month 3 - Lesson 1: Rahab

Faith That Took Action

Theme: Courage in the Face of Danger

Background Text: Joshua 2:1–21; 6:22–25

Key Verse: Hebrews 11:31 (WEB)

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Faith that acts before the promise is visible.

Appetizer – The Risk That Redefined a Life, Joshua 2:1, 3–4 (WEB)

“Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two men out of Shittim as spies, saying, ‘Go, view the land, including Jericho.’ They went and came into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and slept there.”

“Jericho’s king sent to Rahab, saying, ‘Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered into your house; for they have come to spy out all the land.’ The woman took the two men, and hid them...”

CST

Rahab’s name shows up differently in Scripture—Rachab in Matthew’s genealogy of Christ and Rahab in the Book of Joshua—but her faith stayed the same. She wasn’t born an Israelite, yet her belief in Israel’s God was strong enough to override her fear of the king.

Faith acted before the promise was visible. She chose courage in the face of death.

Reflection Question

Has your faith ever been tested in a way that demanded courage before you saw the results?

Main Course

Bite 1 – A Faith Born from Hearing, Joshua 2:8–9,11 (WEB)

⁸ Before they had lain down, she came up to them on the roof. ⁹ She said to the men, “I know that Yahweh has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. ¹¹ As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, and there wasn’t any more spirit in any man, because of you: for Yahweh your God, he is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath.

CST

Faith comes by hearing—and Rahab proves it. She believed without ever seeing the Red Sea part or the Amorite kings fall. Testimonies of God’s power traveled farther than Israel’s feet, and those stories were enough to birth faith in her heart.

Her belief in a God she had never met was strong enough to inspire obedience in danger.

Reflection Questions

- What promises has God made to you that are not yet fulfilled? What action might He be waiting on from you?

Bite 2 – When Faith Meets Action, Joshua 2:12–13, 18 (WEB)

¹² Now therefore, please swear to me by Yahweh, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father’s house, and give me a true sign; ¹³ and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death.”

¹⁸ Behold, when we come into the land, tie this line of scarlet thread in the window which you used to let us down. Gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household.

CST

The scarlet rope became a visible sign of an invisible covenant. It wasn’t just a safety signal—it was a prophetic symbol of redemption. Her faith wasn’t passive; it was tied to obedience.

Her decision to hang that rope out the window saved not just her life, but her entire household.

Reflection Question

What “scarlet rope” of obedience have you hung out as proof of your trust in God?

Bite 3 – Faith That Rewrites the Future (Joshua 6:22–23, 25, WEB)

“Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, ‘Go into the prostitute’s house, and bring the woman and all that she has out from there, as you swore to her.’”

“The young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had... But Rahab the prostitute, her father’s household, and all that she had, Joshua saved alive. She lives in the middle of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.”

CST

Faith not only saves—it transforms. Rahab went from outcast to insider, from pagan prostitute to part of God’s covenant people, and eventually into the family line of the Messiah Himself. Sometimes, the least likely person carries the greatest impact.

Reflection Question

Who might be saved, inspired, or transformed by your act of faith today?

Dessert – Faith Remembered, Hebrews 11:31 (WEB)

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute, didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Reflection

God didn’t highlight Rahab’s past to shame her but to magnify His grace. Her label didn’t stop her legacy. Faith rewrote her ending—and it can rewrite yours too.

Write one sentence of gratitude to God for giving you a future that’s bigger than your past:

To-Go Box

- Faith hears what God has done and believes what He will do.
- Rahab's courage shows that obedience in a single moment can shift an entire family's destiny.
- Your history does not disqualify you; your response to God's invitation defines you.

Carry this truth:

Faith acts first; foresight trusts God with the outcome.

Don't let fear of judgment, failure, or your past silence your obedience. Like Rahab, your courage today can redeem generations tomorrow.

Word Study

- Rahab / Rachab (Hebrew: רַחַב) – “Spacious, broad.” Symbolic of enlargement and room made through faith.
 - Scarlet Rope – A sign of covenant and protection, echoing the Passover blood on the doorposts and pointing forward to the blood of Christ.
 - Foresight – Spiritual anticipation rooted in trust that God is already working beyond what we see.

Activity – True or False: Rahab's Faith

1. Rahab was born an Israelite woman. ☐
 2. The scarlet rope represented obedience and covenant. ☐
 3. Rahab acted only out of fear, not faith. ☐
 4. Rahab's faith saved her entire family. ☐
 5. Rahab later appeared in Jesus' family line.
(Check answers in the Appendix) ☐

Author's Testimony

I once faced my own test of faith. I needed funds to remodel a home for veterans in need. Quotes came in as high as $30,000, and my account was empty. But I prayed, “Lord, You know my needs, Jehovah-Jireh, my provider.” Within a week, God sent two unexpected renters who paid exactly $12,000—the remaining amount I needed to complete the work.

Faith made a way I could not see. Like Rahab, I learned that obedience, no matter how small, can open doors for God's miraculous provision. Father, help each reader to boldly break away from things that are holding them back and embrace the opportunities to grow in your and walk into their purpose, in Jesus name amen. 🙏

BM3 — Lesson 2: Abigail

Wisdom on the Move

 Background Text: 1 Samuel 25:2–39; Proverbs 15:1 (WEB)

 Key Verse: Proverbs 15:1

“A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.”

 Wisdom in motion: faith that chooses peace over pride.

 Appetizer – The Courage to Step In, 1 Samuel 25:18–20 (WEB)

“Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two containers of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five seahs of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys. She said to her young men, ‘Go on before me. Behold, I come after you.’ But she didn’t tell her husband, Nabal.

It was so, as she rode on her donkey, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that behold, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.”

Abigail wasted no time. She quickly gathered two hundred loaves of bread, two containers of wine, five prepared sheep, roasted grain, clusters of raisins, and cakes of figs. She packed them on donkeys and said to her servants, “Go on ahead. I will follow you shortly.” But she didn’t tell her husband Nabal what she was doing. Sometimes moving strategically is moving stealthily!

 CST

Abigail didn’t wait for permission to do what was right. She used foresight—seeing danger ahead and acting to prevent disaster. Her faith wasn’t just belief; it was movement toward peace.

 Reflection Question

When was the last time you acted on faith to prevent harm or conflict?

Main Course

Bite 1 – The Folly of Nabal, 1 Samuel 25:10–11, 14–17 (WEB)

“Nabal answered David’s servants, and said, ‘Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants who break away from their masters these days. Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don’t know where they come from?’”

Later, one of Nabal’s servants told Abigail how David’s men had been good to them in the fields, how they had not been harmed or stolen from, and yet Nabal “rushed on them” with insults. He warned her that disaster was hanging over the household because Nabal was such a worthless man “that one can’t speak to him”

CST

Nabal’s arrogance created a crisis. Foolish pride will always test someone’s faith. Abigail’s faith met that test with wisdom, not words of war. The bible says in James 1:19-20 (KJV, paraphrased), that we should be ‘quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to wrath. Because the wrath of man doesn’t produce the righteousness of God. Nabal wasn’t trying to hear anyone of reason and sometimes we hear through emotional filters, and it is important for us to identify and call out these barriers to the truth, just like Nabal’s servants did to Abigail.

Reflection Question

Have you ever had to respond to someone’s anger or disrespect with peace instead of pride?

Bite 2 – Faith in Action, 1 Samuel 25:23–31 (WEB)

“When Abigail saw David, she hurried, and alighted from her donkey, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. She fell at his feet, and said, ‘On me, my lord, on me be the iniquity; and please let your handmaid speak in your ears. Hear the words of your handmaid. Please don’t let my lord pay attention to this worthless fellow, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and folly is with him...’”

When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed low before him. She fell at his feet and said, “I accept all blame in this matter, my lord. Please listen to what I have to say... When the Lord has done all He promised and has made you leader of Israel, don’t let this be a blemish on your record.”

She strategically pointed David back to God’s promise over his life—that Yahweh would surely make him ruler over Israel. She urged him not to carry needless bloodshed or vengeance on his record when that day came.

CST

Abigail took on the blame for her husband’s offense—an act of courage and foresight. She spoke life into David’s calling instead of fueling his wrath. Her humility redirected the entire situation.

Reflection Questions

- What does it mean to “stand in the gap” for someone else’s mistake?

- Have you ever had to de-escalate a situation you didn’t cause?

- Did your response bring God honor or dishonor?

Bite 3 – A Wise Outcome, 1 Samuel 25:32–35 (WEB)

“David said to Abigail, ‘Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me! Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, who have kept me today from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand.... I have listened to your voice, and have accepted your person.’ So David received from her hand that which she had brought him. Then he said to her, ‘Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice, and have granted your request.’”

David replied to Abigail, “Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, who has sent you to meet me today! Thank God for your good sense! David is a sensible guy. The same one that stood up for the people of God and Bless you for keeping me from murder and from carrying out vengeance with my own hands.” Then David accepted her gifts and told her, “Return home in peace. I have heard what you said. We will not kill your husband.” If he didn’t kill Saul, David was truly after peace and support for the men who supported others- nothing more.

CST

One act of wisdom can save an entire household. Faith foresaw danger; wisdom found peace. Abigail's actions honored God, David, and her own integrity.

Reflection Question

What would the world look like if more of us prayed for wisdom before reacting?

Dessert – The Aftermath of Obedience (1 Samuel 25:38–39, WEB)

“About ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal, so that he died. When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, ‘Blessed be Yahweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil.’”

About ten days later, the Lord struck Nabal, and he died. When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise the Lord, who has avenged the insult I received from Nabal and has kept me from doing it myself.” Then David sent messengers to propose marriage to Abigail.

CST

When God vindicates, He also elevates. Abigail's humility brought her favor—she went from the wife of a fool to the bride of a future king.

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight are more than belief—they are wisdom in motion.
- Pride creates unnecessary battles; humility opens unexpected doors.
- When we humble ourselves and act with discernment, God can turn conflict into protection and even promotion.

Closing Prayer (Abigail – Wisdom on the Move)

“Lord, thank You for Abigail’s example of wisdom and courage. Help me respond with grace when other people’s foolishness creates messes around me. Teach me to honor You, treat Your people well, and trust You to handle what I can’t. In Jesus’ name, amen.

Word Study

- Abigail (Hebrew: אַבִּיגַיִל – “Avigayil”) — “My father’s joy” or “source of joy.” Her character embodied the beauty of her name; she became a channel of peace and joy even in chaos.
- Nabal (Hebrew: נָבָל – “Nabal”) — “Foolish” or “senseless.” His actions reflected his name, showing how arrogance blinds us to wisdom and leads to destruction.
- Scapegoat (Hebrew: עֲזָאזֵל – “Azazel”) — From Leviticus 16, referring to the goat released into the wilderness carrying the sins of the people. Symbolically, Abigail bore the “guilt” of her household to intercede for peace.
- Foresight — Spiritual sensitivity that anticipates and prepares for what God is revealing ahead of time.

Write one line about where you need foresight right now:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. Abigail acted with _____ and faith, not fear.
2. Nabal's pride led to his _____.
3. David praised God for Abigail's _____.
4. Abigail's wisdom prevented _____ and brought peace.

BM3 — Lesson 3: The Centurion

Faith That Commands Results

Theme: Trusting Jesus' Word

Background Text: Matthew 8:5–13; Luke 7:1–10

Key Verse: Matthew 8:10 (WEB)

“When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said... ‘Most certainly I tell you, I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel.’”

Faith that trusts the Word, not the circumstances.

Appetizer – The Power of a Word, Matthew 8:5–8 (WEB)

⁵When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him for help,
⁶saying, “Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented.” ⁷Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

The centurion answered, ‘Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.’

The centurion didn’t ask Jesus for a visit—he asked Him for a word. He believed that one word from Jesus could travel farther and work faster than any doctor, medicine, or ritual.

CST Thought

Faith is not about proximity—it’s about posture. The centurion knew Jesus didn’t have to be physically present to be powerfully effective. True belief doesn’t demand evidence; it simply trusts the Word.

Reflection Question

Have you ever believed God for something without needing to “see” how He would do it?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Humility Before Honor, Luke 7:1–4, 6–7 (WEB)

⁷ After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. ² A certain centurion’s servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. ³ When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant. ⁴ When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for you to do this for him, synagogue for us.”

Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, ‘Lord, don’t trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. Therefore I didn’t even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed.’”

The Jewish elders said, “He is worthy.” The centurion said, “I am not.” The people pointed to his résumé; he pointed to Jesus’ authority. God in the flesh, (Jesus) was moved by his heart and his application of faith.

CST Thought

Humility is the bridge to divine help. The centurion had status, money, and influence—but he laid all of that down at Jesus’ feet. Faith is strongest when pride is silent.

Reflection Question

How does humility open the door for faith to operate in your life?

Bite 2 – The Understanding of Authority, Matthew 8:9 (WEB)

“For I am also a man under authority, having soldiers under me. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

The centurion lived his life in chains of command—he understood how orders flowed from a higher rank to those beneath. When he looked at Jesus, he recognized heavenly authority at work: the same power that governs sickness, distance, and timing.

CST Thought

The centurion understood authority not just as control, but as covering. He believed that if Jesus spoke, creation itself had to respond. He saw that Jesus carried a higher command than Rome—kingdom authority.

Reflection Question

When you pray, do you believe the words you speak in Jesus’ name carry that same delegated authority?

Bite 3 – Faith That Amazed Jesus, Luke 7:9–10; Matthew 8:13 (WEB)

“When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, ‘I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel!’ Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.”

“Jesus said to the centurion, ‘Go your way. As you have believed, so let it be done for you.’ His servant was healed in that hour.”

A Roman soldier’s faith made Jesus marvel. No ritual, no long speech, no physical touch—just a request based on understanding who Jesus is and what His Word can do.

CST Thought

Faith works across every barrier—distance, language, culture, status, or time. The Word still heals, restores, and delivers when we believe it and speak it. Let us begin to lean in, unlocking and release the depth and the height of God’s love expressed towards us, the bible says that he doesn’t want his people to be lost but to come to the knowledge of the truth. (2 Peter 3:9)

Reflection Question

Where in your life do you need to trust that God's Word is already at work, even when you can't see the process?

Dessert – Believing Without Seeing

The centurion never demanded, “Show me how.” He simply said, “Just say the word.” His servant was healed without Jesus ever stepping into the house.

Reflection

What would shift in your prayer life if you trusted what God said more than what you see?

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight together teach us that authority in prayer isn't about volume or visibility—it's about confidence in the Word of God.
- Humility positions us to receive what pride would block.
- Real faith does not require God to “prove it” first; it rests in what He has already spoken.
- When you recognize Jesus' authority, you can walk in your own God-given authority with boldness and peace.

Closing Prayer

“Lord Jesus, thank You for the centurion's example of simple, strong faith. Help me to trust Your Word more than what I see and to pray with confidence in Your authority, not my own strength. Teach me to stay humble, to believe that when You speak, things change. In Your name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write your own reflection or prayer to God about trusting His Word and His authority in your life:

Word Study

- Centurion (Latin: Centurio) – A Roman officer over about one hundred soldiers; represents leadership through discipline, obedience, and order.
- Authority (Greek: Exousia, ἐξουσία) – Permission and delegated power; the right to act. Jesus carries authority over nature, sickness, sin, and even death.
- Faith (Greek: Pistis, πίστις) – Trust, conviction, and complete reliance upon God’s truth and character.

Write a short line about where you need to trust Jesus’ authority more fully:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. The centurion’s faith worked even at a _____.
2. Jesus said, “I have not found anyone in Israel with such great _____.”
3. True faith doesn’t need evidence; it trusts the _____.
4. The centurion understood the power of _____.

(Check the Appendix for answers)

BM3 — Lesson 4: Joseph of Arimathea

Trust the Process

Theme: Obedience in the Quiet Moments

Background Text : Matthew 27:57–61; John 19:38–42

Key Verse: John 19:38 (WEB)

“After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body.”

Faith that honors Jesus even when the story looks finished.

Appetizer – Faith in Action, Matthew 27:57–58 (WEB)

“When evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus’ disciple. This man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus’ body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up.”

Joseph of Arimathea was a rich man, a respected council member, and a quiet follower of Jesus. When many had run away in fear, he stepped forward in love and courage. He went straight to Pilate and asked for the body of the crucified Christ—a bold, risky request that publicly tied his name to Jesus at the very moment things looked the worst.

CST Thought

Even in loss, faith moves us to act in honor. Joseph’s decision to claim Jesus’ body was not loud or flashy, but it was a quiet and powerful display of devotion when many others had fled.

Reflection Question

When have you had to act on your faith quietly but boldly, even when others were afraid to stand?

Main Course – The Pivot

Bite 1 Provision in Place, Matthew 27:59–60 (WEB)

“Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock. Then he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.”

Joseph used what he had already prepared for himself—a new tomb carved in the rock—to honor Jesus. He wrapped the Lord’s body carefully, placed Him in that tomb, and sealed it with a great stone. What Joseph once thought was for his future became part of God’s bigger plan.

CST Thought

God’s provision is never late. Long before Jesus’ crucifixion, the Father had already chosen and prepared Joseph to meet this moment. What looked like a personal investment (a private tomb) became a kingdom assignment.

Author’s Commentary

It wasn’t just a believer who requested the body of Jesus, but Joseph of Arimathea—a wealthy man and quiet follower of Christ. He didn’t realize that the tomb he built for himself would one day hold the body of the Savior of the world. His influence and position on the council gave him access to Pilate, and because of that, the king granted his request for the body. God had already provided everything needed from Christ’s birth to His burial. All we must do is trust the process.

Sometimes the Lord will place you in a role, job, or position you don’t fully understand—not for your comfort, but for His assignment.

Reflection Question

Is there something God has called you to do that you don't yet understand? Are you willing to trust the process while your faith grows?

Bite 2 – Courage to Be Counted, John 19:38–40 (WEB)

“After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. So they took Jesus’ body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.”

Joseph had been a secret disciple, afraid of what the Jewish leaders might say. But at the cross, his secret faith became public action. Nicodemus, who once came to Jesus at night, joined him in this bold, costly act of honor. Both men stepped out of the shadows to align themselves with a “condemned” Messiah.

CST Thought

There comes a time when quiet belief must become visible obedience. Faith that stays hidden forever never fully walks in purpose. Joseph and Nicodemus show us that even if you started secretly, God can still call you to stand boldly.

Reflection Question

Where is God asking you to move from silent agreement to visible obedience?

Dessert – Faith Sealed in Stone, John 19:40–42 (WEB)

“So they took Jesus’ body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. Then because of the Jews' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there."

Everything about this scene looked final: the spices, the linen, the new tomb, the stone. Yet heaven knew this was not the end—it was a setup. The garden tomb was not a permanent resting place; it was the stage for resurrection.

CST Thought

When you trust God's process, even what looks like a burial can become the birthplace of breakthrough. What we call "the end" may be where God is just getting started.

Reflection Question

What area of your life feels "sealed in stone" right now—and how might God be working behind the scenes in ways you cannot see yet?

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight remind us that obedience opens doors long before we know we'll need to walk through them.
- God often uses our resources, positions, and plans for purposes bigger than we imagined.
- Trust that God's plans are already in motion—even when you can't see the full picture yet.
- Like Joseph of Arimathea, your quiet preparation today may be part of a major move of God tomorrow.

Closing Prayer

"Lord, thank You for Joseph of Arimathea's example of quiet, courageous faith. Help me to trust Your process, even when I don't understand every step. Use what I have and where I am for Your purpose, not just my plans. In Jesus' name, amen."

Personal Prayer Space

Write your own reflection or prayer to God about trusting His timing and His process in your life:

Word Study

- Arimathea – A town near Jerusalem; the name is associated with “heights” or a high place.
- Joseph (Hebrew: Yosef) – “He will add” or “He increases” — prophetic of increase and multiplication.
- Trust (Hebrew: Batach) – To rely on, be confident, or secure; a firm confidence in God’s provision and timing.

Write a short line about where you need to batach—to lean hard into trusting God’s process:

Activity – Connect the Process

Match each act of faith (left) with the result (right).

Match	Activity	Phrase
	1 Joseph's request for Jesus' body	A The burial fulfilled prophecy with reverence.
	2 Wrapping Jesus in linen	B A temporary seal that set up resurrection
	3 Building his own tomb	C Jesus' body was placed in a tomb of honor.
	4 Rolling the stone	D God used a personal plan for divine purpose

Reflection Thought (Activity Tie-In)

Faith builds what it may not yet understand, trusting that God will reveal its purpose in due time. Write a declaration that stretches your faith but is something you need/want/or hope the Lord will favor you to that end.

Appendix – Breakfast Month 3 (AE) Answer Key

Lesson 1 – Rahab: Faith That Took Action

 Activity – True or False: Rahab’s Faith

Lesson 1 – Rahab: Faith That Took Action

Activity – True or False

1. Rahab was an Israelite woman raised in a godly home.
➤ False – She was a Canaanite woman from Jericho.
 2. The scarlet rope was a sign of the agreement between Rahab and the spies.
➤ True
 3. Rahab’s actions showed both faith in God and concern for her family.
➤ True
 4. Rahab’s faith only affected her, not anyone else.
➤ False – Her whole household was saved.
 5. Rahab is later mentioned in the family line of Jesus.
➤ True – She appears in His genealogy.

Lesson 2 – Abigail: Wisdom on the Move

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. Abigail acted with wisdom and faith, not fear.
2. Nabal’s pride led to his death.
3. David praised God for Abigail’s good sense/wisdom.
4. Abigail’s wisdom prevented bloodshed/killing and brought peace.

Lesson 3 – The Centurion: Faith That Commands Results

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. The centurion's faith worked even at a distance.
 2. Jesus said, "I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith."
 3. True faith doesn't need evidence; it trusts the Word.
 4. The centurion understood the power of authority.

Lesson 4 – Joseph of Arimathea: Trust the Process

Activity – Connect the Process

Match each act of faith with the correct result:

- 1 Joseph's request for Jesus' body → Jesus' body was placed in a tomb of honor.
- 2 Building his own tomb → God used a personal plan for divine purpose.
- 3 Wrapping Jesus in linen → The burial fulfilled prophecy with reverence.
- 4 Rolling the stone → A temporary seal that set up resurrection power.

Wellness Support Team

Charleston Wellness Center – thank you for reminding us that spiritual work flourishes best when mind, body, and soul are cared for together.

Editors

To my editors – including the gifted freelancers who labored behind their online pen names – thank you for your attentive eyes, patient revisions, and for helping me carry the heart of this message with clarity and excellence. Your quiet, faithful work is felt on every page.

Reference & Study Resources

Historical, linguistic, and cultural insights for the instructors and teachers- extended study materials have been formed by standard biblical reference works, concordances, and reputable academic sources, as outlined in the Reference & Historical Source Index (Instructor Edition) for this series. These tools were used under educational Fair Use to provide context, clarity, and enrichment for teachers and students alike.

FaithTech & Digital Tools

Special thanks to the emerging world of FaithTech and “greater works” digital tools that helped make this project possible at a fraction of the traditional cost, multiplying reach while honoring the message of the Gospel.

Above all, I give glory to God for every person, prayer, tool, and resource that has helped turn Soul Food from a vision into a living, teaching ministry on the page.
