DEDICATION

This work is dedicated first and foremost to the Lord Jesus Christ—the original Disruptor, the Living Word, and the true Bread of Life. May every page point you back to Him.

To my son, Jafari, you pushed me to be a better mom and a teacher of the Word. Seeing your excitement and hearing how you and the youth I've taught rallied around the message—recalling with energy the impact of every lesson—is why this playbook exists. You are the reason I keep refining the craft.

To the student reading this: you aren't just a face in the crowd or a number to God. You are the guest of honor at His table. If you've ever felt like "leftovers" or found yourself stuck on a "loading screen" in life, know that you aren't too young to lead or too late for His promises. Don't settle for vibes when God is offering you Vision. You aren't just the future; you are the power of the church right now.

To the mentors, teachers, and real ones grinding behind the scenes—the ones praying for this generation and showing up even when it's hard: your "yes" is the soil this work grew from. Your unseen sacrifices are building a legacy that no book could ever fully describe.

Now, it's time to level up. This series is your foundation—designed to help you make prayer your first resort, navigate the "art of through," and move with the faith and foresight of a Kingdom builder. Keep dreaming, keep pushing, and stay hungry for the Word. The Shepherd is leading, and the win is already yours.

"Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." — 1 Timothy 4:12 (KJV)

With warm regards,

Dr. Dee Brown

QUICK START FOR LEADERS

Who this is for:

Pastors, ministers, small group leaders, Sunday school teachers, and facilitators using the Soul Food Series in any gathering (church, home, online, or community setting).

Session Length & Rhythm

- Recommended session time: 60–75 minutes
- Ideal pace: 1 lesson per week (or biweekly for deeper processing)
- Group size: 4–15 people works best.

Basic Flow for Each Lesson

1. Welcome & Prayer (5–10 min)
2. Appetizer (10–15 min)
3. Main Course: Bites + CST (30–35 min)
4. Dessert & To-Go Box (10–15 min)
5. Closing Prayer (5 min)

Tips for Leading Well

- Create a safe space; remind the group that what is shared stays in the group (w/ appropriate exceptions for safety).
- Honor time by starting and ending close to schedule.
- Let the Holy Spirit lead; the questions are a guide, not a cage.
- Model honesty and vulnerability.
- Invite participation, not performance.

Using Activities & Games

Use Trivia Mix-Up (Millionaire-style) and Tricky Testaments (Jeopardy-style) as openers to review the previous lesson or as closers to reinforce the current one. Let youth or emerging leaders help read questions, track scores, or lead a round to build ownership and confidence.

Before Each Session

- Read the Background Text and lesson in advance.
- (Optional) Play the audio companion track.
- Pray for wisdom, discernment, and sensitivity.
- Ask God who might need extra encouragement that day.

You don't have to be a Bible scholar to lead. You just have to be willing, teachable, and available. God will take care of the rest.

Youth Edition

 Theme:

Part III: Faith & Foresight

⁶In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.

— Philippians 4:6 (WEB)

Introduction – Faith & Foresight

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” — Hebrews 11:1 (KJV)

Ever feel like your life is glitching because you can't see the next level? Faith and foresight are like having a 5G connection to God's plan and a GPS that sees around the corners you haven't turned yet. Faith is believing in what you can't see yet, while foresight is the spiritual "prep work" for the promises God has already signed off on. Together, they keep you making boss moves today because you trust God's win for your tomorrow.

This month, we'll walk with four people who mastered Faith & Foresight:

- Rahab – Had the foresight to align with God's people before the walls ever came down.
- Abigail – Used foresight to intercept a disaster and stop a war before it started.
- The Centurion – Operated in a level of faith that saw healing from a distance.
- Joseph of Arimathea – Prepared for the King by having a tomb ready before the cross.

In this study, we're going to discover that walking with God isn't just about "vibes"—it's about having vision. Faith hears God's voice, and foresight prepares the plan.

SOUL FOOD BIBLE STUDY

Breakfast Edition Month 3 - Lesson 1: Rahab

Faith That Took Action

Theme: Courage in the Face of Danger

Background Text: Joshua 2:1–21; 6:22–25

Key Verse: Hebrews 11:31 (WEB)

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Appetizer – The Risk That Changed Her Life, Joshua 2:1, 3–4 (WEB)

Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two men out of Shittim as spies, saying, “Go, view the land, including Jericho.” They went and came into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and slept there.

Rahab lived in Jericho, in a city that was about to face God’s judgment. She had a reputation, a past, and every reason to protect herself—but when the king demanded the spies, she risked her life to hide them.

▣ Shared Thought

Rahab had to choose: stay safe with the crowd, or step out in risky obedience toward God. Her decision wasn’t just about her; it affected her whole family. She did not know the God of the Israelites but she knew of what he had done in and for His people and that was enough for her to regard them higher than her culture and her king.

Reflection Question:

Have you ever known the right thing to do but felt scared to actually do it? What held you back—or what helped you move anyway?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Faith Born from What She Heard, Joshua 2:8–9,11 (WEB)

⁸ Before they had lain down, she came up to them on the roof. ⁹ She said to the men, “I know that Yahweh has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. ¹¹ As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, and there wasn’t any more spirit in any man, because of you: for Yahweh your God, he is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath.

Rahab wasn’t an Israelite. She didn’t grow up in church or know all the laws. But she heard what God had done—and believed it. While others hardened their hearts, she let fear turn into faith.

Shared Thought

Faith often starts with hearing what God has done—through Scripture, testimonies, or your own past moments with Him.

Reflection Question:

What’s one story (from the Bible or real life) that has strengthened your faith in God?

Bite 2 – The Scarlet Rope of Obedience, Joshua 2:12–14, 17–18 (WEB)

¹² Now therefore, please swear to me by Yahweh, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father’s house, and give me a true sign; ¹³ and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death.”

¹⁴ The men said to her, “Our life for yours, if you don’t talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when Yahweh gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

¹⁷ The men said to her, “We will be guiltless of this your oath which you’ve made us to swear. ¹⁸ Behold, when we come into the land, tie this line of scarlet thread in the window which you used to let us down. Gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household.

Rahab’s temptation was the King and his men, her culture -instead of going with what she knew, she went with what was right. It wasn’t the popular choice but it was a life changing one! Rahab didn’t just believe; she made a covenant. The scarlet rope became a sign: when judgment came, her house would be marked by faith and spared.

▣ Shared Thought

Rahab's scarlet rope wasn't magic; it was her decision to trust God over her surroundings. Standing your ground takes boldness. You might feel scared, and that's fine—move anyway! I remember in school when everyone planned to ditch class for a party. The pressure to follow the crowd was heavy, but I heard a 'voice' say, 'Don't go.' That was God. We have to spot those spiritual lifelines so we can stay safe, even when everyone else is heading the wrong way.

💬 Reflection Question:

What is one “scarlet rope” in your life—a visible step of obedience that shows you're trusting God?

🍷 Bite 3 – A New Future Written by Faith, Joshua 6:22–23, 25 (WEB)

²²Joshua said... “Go into the prostitute's house, and bring out from there the woman, and all that she has, as you swore to her.” ²⁴So the young men... brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had... ²⁵ Joshua saved Rahab... and she lives in the middle of Israel to this day...

Rahab's faith saved her whole household. Later, she would be included in the family line that led to Jesus. Not bad for someone everyone else would have written off.

▣ Shared Thought

God can take a life marked by shame and rewrite it with purpose. Faith doesn't erase your past—but it invites God to redeem it. Lifelines aren't for a moment, it can be the shift, the break the new path you never knew you needed. Rahab didn't look back at the rumble, at her old life at any leverage she built from what she did in the past, she left it where it belonged in her-story. Your past doesn't define you. Nor your present confine you, allow God to refine you and show you what life is like in Him.

💬 Reflection Question:

Who in your life needs to know that God can rewrite their story, no matter their past?

Dessert – Faith That Didn’t Wait, Hebrews 11:31 (WEB)

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Rahab could’ve waited until things were safer, clearer, or more convenient-but procrastination had one problem-there was no guarantee. Instead, she moved when God gave her the chance. There is no perfect or “good” or “ideal” time to accept salvation, the best time is NOW.

Reflection Prompt:

Finish this sentence: “God, I don’t want to wait until it’s safe to obey You. Help me to _____.”

To-Go Box

- Faith can start in unexpected places and people.
 - Hearing what God has done can lead you to trust what He’s doing now.
 - Obedience (your “scarlet rope”) can protect more than just you—it can impact your whole household.

Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Rahab’s courage and for showing me that You can use anyone who trusts You. Help me listen when You speak, obey even when it feels risky, and believe that You can rewrite my story and my family’s story. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write a short prayer asking God to grow your courage and faith like Rahab’s:

Word Study

- Abigail (Hebrew: אֲבִיגַיִל – “Avigayil”) — “My father’s joy” or “source of joy.” Her character embodied the beauty of her name; she became a channel of peace and joy even in chaos.
- Nabal (Hebrew: נָבָל – “Nabal”) — “Foolish” or “senseless.” His actions reflected his name, showing how arrogance blinds us to wisdom and leads to destruction.
- Scapegoat (Hebrew: עֲזָאזֵל – “Azazel”) — From Leviticus 16, referring to the goat released into the wilderness carrying the sins of the people. Symbolically, Abigail bore the “guilt” of her household to intercede for peace.
- Foresight — Spiritual sensitivity that anticipates and prepares for what God is revealing ahead of time.

Write one line about where you need foresight right now:

Activity – True or False: Rahab’s Faith

Read each statement and circle T for True or F for False.

1. Rahab was born an Israelite woman. ☐
 2. The scarlet rope represented obedience and covenant. ☐
 3. Rahab acted only out of fear, not faith. ☐
 4. Rahab’s faith saved her entire family. ☐
 5. Rahab later appeared in Jesus’ family line. ☐

BM3 — Lesson 2: Abigail

Wisdom on the Move

Theme: Wisdom That Protects

Background Text: 1 Samuel 25:2–35

Key Verse: Proverbs 15:1 (WEB)

“A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.”

Appetizer – The Courage to Step In, 1 Samuel 25:18–20 (WEB)

Then Abigail hurried, and took two hundred loaves of bread... two bottles of wine... five sheep ready dressed... She said to her young men, “Go on before me. Behold, I come after you.” But she didn’t tell her husband Nabal...

David was angry because Nabal had insulted him and refused to help. Recognizing how foul her husband behaved, Abigail stepped in quickly to bring food, humility, and peace before things got violent.

▣ Shared Thought

Abigail didn’t wait for someone else to fix it. She saw danger coming and moved with wisdom and courage, this is called intercession or prevention or de-escalation.

Reflection Question:

Have you ever seen drama or conflict building and wished someone would step in with wisdom? What did you do?

Main Course

Bite 1 – The Foolishness of Nabal, 1 Samuel 25:10–11, 14, 17 (WEB)

¹⁰ Nabal answered David’s servants and said, “Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants who break away from their masters these days. ¹¹ Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don’t know where they come from?”

Nabal’s arrogance created a dangerous situation. His pride didn’t just affect him—it put his whole household at risk.

Shared Thought

Nabal’s servants quickly pulled up the ‘receipts,’ recalling exactly how David and his men had been a wall of protection for them and the flock. Even with the facts on the table, Nabal’s ego was too loud for him to recognize David’s kindness or judge the moment correctly. His arrogance—that ‘better than everyone else’ attitude—blinded him to the fact that doing right by David’s men wasn’t just a suggestion; it was a requirement. It’s a powerful lesson for us: someone else’s foolishness can trigger a storm you didn’t ask for, but even then, you can still choose wisdom and change the forecast.

Reflection Question:

When have you seen someone’s pride or anger make things worse for everyone around them?

Bite 2 – Standing in the Gap, 1 Samuel 25:23–24, 28, 31 (WEB)

²³ When Abigail saw David, she hurried and got off her donkey, and fell before David on her face and bowed herself to the ground. ²⁴ She fell at his feet and said, “On me, my lord, on me be the blame! Please let your servant speak in your ears. Hear the words of your servant.

²⁸ Please forgive the trespass of your servant. For Yahweh will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights Yahweh’s battles. Evil will not be found in you all your days.

Abigail took responsibility for something she didn’t do, in order to save lives. She reminded David of his calling and helped him think about his future reputation.

▣ Shared Thought

"Standing in the gap isn't about being a doormat; it's about being a shock absorber. It means you care more about God's honor and keeping people safe than about winning a petty argument. An 'Abigail move' can literally save a life—I know because it happened to me.

In high school, I had a gun pulled on me just for telling a story that 'triggered' someone. Another teen stepped in—she didn't have to get involved, but she saw the 'glitch' before it crashed everyone's future. She moved fast, talked him down, and convinced him to put it away. I had to report it, but if it wasn't for my Abigail intercepting that disaster, I wouldn't be here to tell the story. Sometimes God calls you to absorb the tension so the situation doesn't explode."

🗨 Reflection Questions:

What does it mean to "stand in the gap" for someone? When is it wise to step in—and when might it be unsafe?

📖 Bite 3 – A Wise Outcome, 1 Samuel 25:32–33, 35 (WEB)

³² David said to Abigail, "Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me! ³³ Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, who have kept me today from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand.

³⁵ So David received from her hand that which she had brought him. Then he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice and have granted your request."

David calmed down. The fight stopped before it ever started. Abigail's actions saved her household and kept David from making a choice he'd regret. Hallelujah, praise the Lord he listened to reason.

▣ Shared Thought

One wise, humble conversation can stop a lot of damage.

🗨 Reflection Question:

Think of a time when you calmed a situation down—or wish you had. What would wisdom look like next time?

Dessert – When God Steps In, 1 Samuel 25:38–39 (WEB)

³⁸ About ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal, so that he died. ³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed is Yahweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil. Yahweh has returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head.”

David sent and spoke concerning Abigail, to take her to himself as wife.

God handled Nabal in His own time. Abigail’s job wasn’t revenge—it was obedience and wisdom.

Reflection Prompt:

Write one sentence asking God to help you choose wisdom instead of revenge.

To-Go Box

- Pride creates problems; wisdom creates peace.
- Sometimes God uses you to de-escalate what someone else started.
- Let God handle judgment; your role is to respond with wisdom and courage.

Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Abigail’s example of courage and wisdom. Help me not to react out of pride or anger. Show me when to speak up, when to step in, and when to step back and let You handle it. Give me a gentle answer and a wise heart. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write a short prayer asking God to help you respond with wisdom in conflict:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. Abigail acted with _____ and faith, not fear.
2. Nabal's pride led to his _____.
3. David praised God for Abigail's _____.
4. Abigail's wisdom prevented _____ and brought peace.

BM3 — Lesson 3: The Centurion

Faith That Commands Results

Theme: Trusting Jesus' Word

Background Text: Matthew 8:5–13; Luke 7:1–10

Key Verse: Matthew 8:10 (WEB)

“When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said... ‘Most certainly I tell you, I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel.’”

Appetizer – Help from a Distance, Matthew 8:5–8 (WEB)

⁵When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him for help, ⁶saying, “Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented.” ⁷Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

The centurion answered, ‘Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.’”

The centurion was a Roman officer, not a Jewish religious leader. But when his servant was suffering, he came to Jesus—not as an enemy, but as a desperate man who believed Jesus could help. The centurion refused to overlook his servant’s need but rather recognized that compassion and action were needed for relief.

Shared Thought

Faith sometimes starts with one simple cry: “Lord, I need You here.”

Reflection Question:

If you could ask Jesus for help in one situation right now, what would it be?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Faith That Understands Authority, Matthew 8:8–9 (WEB)

The centurion answered, “Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes...”

He didn’t need Jesus to walk to his house. He understood that if Jesus had authority, then His word was enough—even from a distance.

Shared Thought

Real faith doesn’t always need a physical sign. It trusts that when Jesus speaks, it’s already done.

Reflection Question:

Do you sometimes feel like you need to “feel something” for your prayers to work? What would it look like to trust God’s Word even when you don’t feel anything?

Bite 2 – Faith That Amazed Jesus, Matthew 8:10, 13 (WEB)

When Jesus heard it, he marveled... “I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel.” ...Jesus said to the centurion, “Go your way. As you have believed, so be it done for you.” His servant was healed in that hour.

Jesus was amazed at this man’s faith. Not because he was perfect or religious, but because he believed Jesus’ word completely.

Shared Thought

Your background doesn’t limit your faith. Jesus is moved by trust, not titles. Aligning with the Great “I AM” starts with your words. Think about it: in the very first chapter of the Bible, the Creator didn’t use hands or tools to build the universe—He spoke ten times, and reality shifted.

Proverbs 18:21 tells us that life and death are held in the power of the tongue, and Isaiah 55:11 explains the authority behind that release. The Centurion understood the assignment. He knew that while “laying on of hands” might make people feel better, the real work happens when a word is released. He didn’t need a ritual; he just needed a command. That word ricochets through eternity until it hits the target.

In the modern world, we say "Say Less"—because when you are walking in strong faith, you don't need a long speech. That level of trust was the "IT" factor that turned his request into a power move.

 Check-In (YES/NO):

Do you believe that Jesus can move in situations you can't physically control?

☐ YES ☐ NO

 Reflection Question:

Where do you need to trust Jesus at a distance—where you can't personally fix it?

 Bite 3 – Faith That Reaches Beyond the Circle, Luke 7:4–7, 9 (WEB)

⁴When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, ⁵ for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." ⁶Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. ⁷Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed.

⁹When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel."

 Shared Thought

Being a high-ranking commander in the Roman Empire didn't make the Centurion a villain—it gave him a platform. Instead of using his power to hurt people, he leveraged it to help them. That's why others were so quick to vouch for his character and tell Jesus why he deserved a hand.

But here's the real power move: despite his status, he was completely humble. He didn't think his "good guy" resume or his high-level titles made him worthy of having God in the flesh walk through his front door. It was as if he said, "With all my accolades, I'm still not worthy—but I'm asking anyway. If You just say the word, that's all I need." Faith isn't just about your miracle; it's also about how God wants to use you to stand in the gap for others.

 Reflection Question:

Who could you be praying for or believing for, like the centurion did for his servant?

 Dessert – Beyond a Resume - A Word Is Enough

It's interesting to see the two takes on this one miracle. Matthew (the former tax collector) highlights the Centurion's clout and chain of command. Luke (the doctor) focuses on his humanitarian work in the community. Both perspectives matter, but neither one was the reason Jesus moved.

Jesus didn't respond to the wealth, the power, or the "good guy" resume. He responded to a heart in need. Emmanuel—God with us—met a level of faith that understood Christ's authority isn't limited by physical presence. The Centurion knew that the Will and the Word of God were enough to cross any threshold and restore what was broken.

When we say "Amen," we are literally saying "It is so." It's the moment we stop looking for a physical sign and come into total agreement with what God has already spoken. The Centurion didn't need a visit; he just needed a Word. He knew that once the Word was released, the shift was already final.

 Reflection Prompt:

Write a one-sentence declaration of faith that starts with:

"Jesus, Your word is enough for _____."

 To-Go Box

- Faith trusts Jesus' authority even at a distance.
- Jesus is moved by trust, not by status or background.
- You can use your faith to intercede for others, not just yourself.

Prayer

“Jesus, thank You for showing me the centurion’s example. Help me trust Your word even when I don’t see or feel immediate change. Grow my faith so that it not only covers my life, but also the lives of people I care about. In Your name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write a prayer for someone else who needs Jesus’ help, like the centurion’s servant did:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. The centurion’s faith worked even at a _____.
2. Jesus said, “I have not found anyone in Israel with such great _____.”
3. True faith doesn’t need evidence; it trusts the _____.
4. The centurion understood the power of _____.

BM3 — Lesson 4: Joseph of Arimathea

Trust the Process

Theme: Obedience in the Quiet Moments

Background Text : Matthew 27:57–61; John 19:38–42

Key Verse: John 19:38 (WEB)

“After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body.”

Appetizer – Quiet Courage, John 19:38–40 (WEB)

³⁸ After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. ³⁹ Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. ⁴⁰ So they took Jesus’ body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.

Jesus had a massive following beyond the famous twelve, including a 70-person “prep team” (Luke 10:1) that cleared the path for His ministry. Within that broader group was Joseph of Arimathea. He wasn’t in the immediate inner-circle or the loudest voice in the room; he was a high-influence leader following Jesus on “quiet mode.”

But real faith isn’t about being the loudest—it’s about being there when it counts. When his inner-circle disciples scattered after the crucifixion, Joseph stepped out of the shadows. He used his clout and resources to handle the King’s business when many others hid in grief and fear, proving you don’t need a “main stage” title to be the one God uses to capture the moment.

Shared Thought

Sometimes faith isn’t public preaching—it’s a quiet, costly step of obedience when it really counts.

Main Course

Bite 1 – Prepared Before He Knew Why, Matthew 27:57–60 (WEB)

⁵⁷ When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus' disciple, came. ⁵⁸ This man went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. ⁵⁹ Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth ⁶⁰ and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.

Joseph had already prepared a new tomb for himself. He likely thought it was for his own future—but God had another plan.

Shared Thought

Sometimes God has you build something in one season that He'll use for a completely different purpose later.

Reflection Question:

Is there something you've been learning, building, or doing that God might be preparing to use in a way you don't see yet?

Bite 2 – Honor in a Hard Moment, John 19:40–42 (WEB)

They took Jesus' body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices... Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb... They laid Jesus there because the tomb was near...

Joseph and Nicodemus gave Jesus a burial of honor, even when it looked like everything was over. They chose reverence when others might have chosen to walk away in disappointment. Sometimes God sends the unlikeliest people to assist you in your transition.

Shared Thought

Faith honors God even when you don't understand what He's doing.

Bite 3 – The Setup for Resurrection, Matthew 27:60, 66; 28:5–6 (WEB)

He rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed... So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone. The angel said to the women... "He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said."

The stone and the sealed tomb looked like a "Game Over" screen, but they were actually the setup for the greatest comeback in history. Joseph's obedience in preparing that tomb became the physical evidence the world needed to prove the resurrection was real. Just when you think a situation is buried and finished, remember: God is in the details, and your "prep work" matters more than you know.

▣ Shared Thought

Sometimes the prompt feels "silly," but obedience is the key to a chain of events only God can see. While stationed in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, I felt a sudden urge at the altar to hug and speak life to a sister who was hurting. In my head, it felt random, but I chose to move anyway.

I didn't know that another woman in the service, Sister Williams, had just challenged God for a sign that He was still listening. She actually had a vision of me hugging that sister before I even stood up. Because I didn't let my "lack of action" get in the way, a chain reaction happened: the sister at the altar received comfort, and Williams received the divine confirmation she desperately needed. One "silly" step of faith can be the answer to someone else's secret prayer.

💬 Reflection Question:

Where in your life does it feel like a "stone" has been rolled in place—and how might God surprise you there?

Dessert – Trusting What You Can't See Yet

Joseph didn't see the resurrection when he rolled the stone; he just saw a moment that required his faithfulness. We often think we need the full blueprint before we move, but we don't have to see or know the whole plan for it to work out for our good. We just have to trust the One who does.

We know in part and see in part, but the more we lean into the God who sees the end from the beginning, the more fulfilling our story becomes.

💬 Reflection Prompt:

Write a one-sentence prayer:

"Lord, help me trust You with _____, even when I can't see the outcome yet."

To-Go Box

- Quiet obedience still matters in God's kingdom.
- God can use what you've prepared in ways you didn't expect.

- What looks like closure to you may be a setup for God’s breakthrough.

Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Joseph’s example of humble, quiet courage. Help me to obey You even when it feels like no one is watching, and to trust that You are working behind the scenes. Use what I’ve prepared and built for Your purposes, not just my own ideas. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write a prayer asking God to use your gifts, resources, and preparation for His purpose:

Word Study

- Arimathea – A town near Jerusalem; the name is associated with “heights” or a high place.
- Joseph (Hebrew: Yosef) – “He will add” or “He increases” — prophetic of increase and multiplication.
- Trust (Hebrew: Batach) – To rely on, be confident, or secure; a firm confidence in God’s provision and timing.

Write a short line about where you need to batach—to lean hard into trusting God’s process:

Activity – Connect the Process

Match each act of faith with the result it connects to.

Match	Acts of Faith	Results
	1 Joseph asked Pilate for Jesus' body.	A What looked like a final seal set the stage for resurrection.
	2 Joseph rolled the stone across the entrance of the tomb.	B A personal tomb became part of God's big redemption story.
	3 Joseph had prepared his own new tomb.	C The burial honored Jesus and fulfilled Jewish custom and prophecy.
	4 Joseph wrapped Jesus' body in clean linen with spices.	D Jesus' body was placed in a tomb of honor instead of being discarded.
