

Main Course – The Pivot

Bite 1 Provision in Place, Matt 27:59–60

<sup>59</sup>Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth <sup>60</sup>and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.

Joseph used what he had already prepared for himself—a new tomb carved in the rock—to honor Jesus. He wrapped the Lord’s body carefully, placed Him in that tomb, and sealed it with a great stone. What Joseph once thought was for his future became part of God’s bigger plan.

God’s provision is never late. Long before Jesus’ crucifixion, the Father had already chosen and prepared Joseph to meet this moment. What looked like a personal investment (a private tomb) became a kingdom assignment.

Author’s Commentary

It wasn’t just a believer who requested the body of Jesus, but Joseph of Arimathea—a wealthy man and quiet follower of Christ. He didn’t realize that the tomb he built for himself would one day hold the body of the Savior of the world. His influence and position on the council gave him access to Pilate, and because of that, the king granted his request for the body. God had already provided everything needed from Christ’s birth to His burial. All we must do is trust the process.

Sometimes the Lord will place you in a role, job, or position you don’t fully understand—not for your comfort, but for His assignment.

Reflection Question

Is there something God has called you to do that you don’t yet understand? Are you willing to trust the process while your faith grows?

Bite 2 – Courage to Be Counted, John 19:38–39

<sup>38</sup>After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. <sup>39</sup>Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds

Joseph had been a secret disciple, afraid of what the Jewish leaders might say. But at the cross, his secret faith became public action. Nicodemus, who once came to Jesus at night, joined him in this bold, costly act of honor. Both men stepped out of the shadows to align themselves with a “condemned” Messiah.

There comes a time when quiet belief must become visible obedience. Faith that stays hidden forever never fully walks in purpose. Joseph and Nicodemus show us that even if you started secretly, God can still call you to stand boldly.

Bite 3 – Faith Sealed in Stone, John 19:40–42

So they took Jesus’ body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. Then because of the Jews’ Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

Everything about this scene looked final: the spices, the linen, the new tomb, the stone. Yet heaven knew this was not the end—it was a setup. The garden tomb was not a permanent resting place; it was the stage for resurrection.

When you trust God’s process, even what looks like a burial can become the birthplace of breakthrough. What we call “the end” may be where God is just getting started.

Author’s Commentary

Sometimes the prompt feels “silly,” but obedience is the key to a chain of events only God can see. While stationed in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, I felt a sudden urge at the altar to hug and speak life to a sister who was hurting. In my head, it felt random, but I chose to move anyway.

I didn’t know that another woman in the service, Sister Williams, had just challenged God for a sign that He was still listening. She actually had a vision of me hugging that sister before I even stood up. Because I didn’t let my “lack of action” get in the way, a chain reaction happened: the sister at the altar received comfort, and Williams received the divine confirmation she desperately needed. One “silly” step of faith can be the answer to someone else’s secret prayer.

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight remind us that obedience opens doors long before we know we’ll need to walk through them.
- God often uses our resources, positions, and plans for purposes bigger than we imagined.
- Trust that God’s plans are already in motion—even when you can’t see the full picture yet.
- Like Joseph of Arimathea, your quiet preparation today may be part of a major move of God tomorrow.

Closing Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Joseph of Arimathea’s example of quiet, courageous faith. Help me to trust Your process, even when I don’t understand every step. Use what I have and where I am for Your purpose, not just my plans. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Word Study

- Arimathea – A town near Jerusalem; the name is associated with “heights” or a high place.
- Joseph (Hebrew: Yosef) – “He will add” or “He increases” — prophetic of increase and multiplication.
- Trust (Hebrew: Batach) – To rely on, be confident, or secure; a firm confidence in God’s provision and timing.

Write a short line about where you need to batach—to lean hard into trusting God’s process:

Lesson 1 – Rahab: Faith That Took Action

Activity – True or False: Rahab’s Faith

1. Rahab was an Israelite woman raised in a godly home.
➤ False – She was a Canaanite woman from Jericho.
  2. The scarlet rope was a sign of the agreement between Rahab and the spies.
➤ True
  3. Rahab’s actions showed both faith in God and concern for her family.
➤ True
  4. Rahab’s faith only affected her, not anyone else.
➤ False – Her whole household was saved.
  5. Rahab is later mentioned in the family line of Jesus.
➤ True – She appears in His genealogy.

Lesson 2 – Abigail: Wisdom on the Move

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. Abigail acted with wisdom and faith, not fear.
  2. Nabal’s pride led to his death.
  3. David praised God for Abigail’s good sense/wisdom.
  4. Abigail’s wisdom prevented bloodshed/killing and brought peace.

Lesson 3 – The Centurion: Faith That Commands Results

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. The centurion's faith worked even at a distance.
  2. Jesus said, "I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith."
  3. True faith doesn't need evidence; it trusts the Word.
  4. The centurion understood the power of authority.

Lesson 4 – Joseph of Arimathea: Trust the Process

Activity – Connect the Process

Match each act of faith with the correct result:

- 1 Joseph's request for Jesus' body → Jesus' body was placed in a tomb of honor.
- 2 Building his own tomb → God used a personal plan for divine purpose.
- 3 Wrapping Jesus in linen → The burial fulfilled prophecy with reverence.
- 4 Rolling the stone → A temporary seal that set up resurrection power.

To my editors – including the gifted freelancers who labored behind their online pen names – thank you for your attentive eyes, patient revisions, and for helping me carry the heart of this message with clarity and excellence. Your quiet, faithful work is felt on every page.

Reference & Study Resources

Historical, linguistic, and cultural insights for the instructors and teachers- extended study materials have been formed by standard biblical reference works, concordances, and reputable academic sources, as outlined in the Reference & Historical Source Index (Instructor Edition) for this series. These tools were used under educational Fair Use to provide context, clarity, and enrichment for teachers and students alike.

FaithTech & Digital Tools

Special thanks to the emerging world of FaithTech and “greater works” digital tools that helped make this project possible at a fraction of the traditional cost, multiplying reach while honoring the message of the Gospel.

Above all, I give glory to God for every person, prayer, tool, and resource that has helped turn Soul Food from a vision into a living, teaching ministry on the page.

Why Soul Food?

Dr. Dee Brown,
Soul Series Founder

Growing up in Boston, my grandmother, Pastor Pearl Doctor, always brought both the food and the Word to the table. You couldn't walk into her home without smelling something cooking and hearing something spiritual on the radio. Whether you came in upset, excited, nervous, or afraid, she would bring you back to center—with the Word of God in one hand and a plate of food in the other.

She didn't wait until Sunday to offer support. She lived what I now call "Truth Served Daily"—sharing God's Word like heavenly bread alongside whatever she had on the stove. I watched family and friends find peace in that kind of soul food, the kind that nourishes the inner person and prepares us for more than the moment we're in.

This Soul Food Break*Fast Instructor Edition was born from that legacy. Designed for teachers, facilitators, and ministry leaders in Bible study circles, cell groups, and Sunday school settings, each lesson offers bite-sized, life-giving "courses" to help your class lay a strong foundation in Christ, deepen fellowship, and share what God is doing in them with others.

The Instructor Edition adds extra tools to support you as you lead: helpful historical notes, dual Scripture references, guidance for activity answers and review material, and tips for navigating "check points" or conversation starters so discussion doesn't stall but moves into the depth and height of biblical truth. It's built to help you direct wholesome, engaging lessons that can be completed in about 75–90 minutes.

Based on the class demographic you're serving, you can pair this Instructor Edition with the matching Soul Food Break*Fast workbook. With the purchase of this paperback, you also receive one free eBook, giving you a comprehensive view of the study as you prepare.

My hope is that these pages bring comfort, clarity, and courage—and inspire you to pass that soul food along.

Be Blessed!
