

Reflection Question:

Where do you need God's peace while you are still waiting on His answer?

Dessert

Hannah's story reminds us that trust in God deepens through the wait. Her song of praise in Chapter 2 shows she found strength not just in her son, but in her Savior.

Reflection Prompt:

Write one short "line of praise" to God, even if you're still in the middle of your waiting.

To-Go Box

- God sees the pain you don't know how to explain.
- Honest prayer is better than fake peace.
- God can give you peace in your heart before the answer shows up in your hands.

Prayer

"Lord, thank You for seeing Hannah's tears. Give me peace while I wait, and help me trust that You haven't forgotten me. In Jesus' name, amen."

Personal Prayer Space

Use this space to write a short, honest prayer to God about something you're waiting on:

Activity – “Hannah’s Hope Steps”

1. Circle One Word for Each Step:

- Her pain: (ignored / mocked / empty / confused)
- Her response: (shut down / prayed / fought back / ran away)
- God’s move: (forgot her / heard her / punished her / blessed her)

2. Short Response: How does Hannah’s story encourage you?

BM2: Lesson 3 – Abram

No Heir, Wait Here

 Theme: Trusting God when the wait is long

 Background Text: Genesis 15:1–6; 16:1–5; 17:1–8

 Key Verse: Genesis 15:6 (WEB)

“He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness.”

Appetizer – Honest Questions, Genesis 15:1–3 (WEB)

¹ After these things Yahweh’s word came to Abram in a vision, saying, ‘Don’t be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward.’ ² Abram said, ‘Lord Yahweh, what will you give me, since I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?’ ³ Abram said, ‘Behold, to me you have given no children; and, behold, one born in my house is my heir.’

Abram was blunt: “God, what does it matter if I’m still childless?” It’s okay to ask God “how” and “when.” Faith isn’t pretending you aren’t confused; faith is bringing your confusion to the One who has the answers.

Reflection Question:

Have you ever felt like, “God, I hear Your promises, but what I see doesn’t match”?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Count the Stars, Genesis 15:4–6 (WEB)

⁴ Behold, Yahweh’s word came to him, saying, ‘This man will not be your heir, but he who will come out of your own body will be your heir.’ ⁵ Yahweh brought him outside, and said, ‘Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them.’ He said to Abram, ‘So shall your offspring be.’ ⁶ He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness.

God gave Abram a visual aid—stars in the sky. He told Abram that his legacy would be just as vast and impossible to count. Abram chose to believe God's word over his own biology. When your reality looks empty, look up at what God has already spoken over your life.

 Reflection Question:

What are some “stars” (Scriptures) God has used to encourage you during a wait?

 Bite 2 – When We Try to “Help” God, Genesis 16:1–4 (WEB)

¹ Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. ² Sarai said to Abram, 'See now, Yahweh has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my servant. It may be that I will obtain children by her.' Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. ³ After Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai took Hagar the Egyptian, her servant, and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife. ⁴ He went to Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

Abram and Sarai tried to "force" the promise through Hagar. This "shortcut" created a mess that lasted for generations. We often create more "through" for ourselves when we try to take the wheel away from God. God doesn't need your help; He needs your trust.

 Reflection Question:

Where are you tempted to rush into your own plan because God seems slow?

 Bite 3 – Name Change, Same Promise, Genesis 17:1–5, 7 (WEB)

¹ When Abram was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abram and said to him, 'I am God Almighty. Walk before me, and be blameless. ² I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.' ³ Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying, ⁴ 'As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of nations. ⁵ Your name will no longer be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations.

⁷I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant...

Years later, God changed Abram's name to Abraham ("Father of many"). God was calling him what he would be before he saw it. Your identity is fixed by God's promise, not your current progress.

Reflection Question:

How does it help to remember what God calls you when your situation doesn't look like it?

Dessert

Abraham's story says:

1. Real faith is honest enough to ask hard questions.
2. Real faith can still stumble, but God picks it back up.
3. God's timing is perfect, even when it feels "late."

Reflection Question:

What is there an area where you need to stop forcing outcomes and start trusting God again?

To-Go Box

- God isn't scared of your honest questions.
- Shortcuts can complicate your life even when God still loves you.
- God's promises stand, even when your patience doesn't.

Write one sentence: "God, help me trust You with _____."

Word Study

- Abram – “Exalted Father”
- Abraham – “Father of Many Nations”

El Shaddai – “God Almighty,” the all-sufficient One who sustains, provides, and fulfills His promises.

Prayer

“God Almighty, forgive me for the times I’ve tried to rush Your plan. Help me to walk before You with a trusting heart. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write about one area where you want to slow down and trust God’s timing:

Activity – “True or False”

1. Abraham never questioned God. (T / F)
2. Sarai suggested using Hagar. (T / F)
3. God changed Abram’s name. (T / F)

BM2 — Lesson 4: Chronic Conditions

 Victory Through the Blood

 Theme: From “unclean” to whole

 Background Text: Luke 8:42–48

 Key Verse: Luke 8:48 (WEB) —

He said to her, ‘Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.’

 Appetizer – Twelve Years of Pain, Luke 8:42–43 (WEB)

⁴² ...But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. ⁴³ A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians and could not be healed by any,”

For twelve years, this woman lived as an outcast. She was broke and broken. She was stuck in the “through.” Sometimes the hardest part isn’t the pain, it’s the feeling that society has forgotten you.

 Reflection Question:

What kind of problem today might make someone feel like they’re “unclean”?

Main Course

 Bite 1 – Touching the Hem, Luke 8:44 (WEB)

⁴⁴ She came behind him, and touched the fringe of his cloak. Immediately the flow of her blood stopped.”

If you’ve ever been to a concert of a popular person, you know how thick the crowd is to get to the stand. Well, Jesus was on his way to heal a sick child, when she reached for the hem in a “risk-it-all” move. She wasn’t even supposed to be there. Faith is often a desperate reach toward Jesus when you have nothing left to lose. Her faith pulled power directly from the Source, and that was the difference between the people who were there just to be there and a woman you refused to be denied wholeness (or a cure).

 Reflection Question:

What does it look like for you to “reach for Jesus” today?

 Bite 2 – “Who Touched Me?”, Luke 8:45–47 (WEB)

⁴⁵ Jesus said, ‘Who touched me?’ When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, ‘Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’’ ⁴⁶ But Jesus said, ‘Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.’ ⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.”

Jesus stopped everything to find her. He wasn’t mad; He wanted her to be known. He didn’t just heal her body; He healed her shame by letting her tell her story out loud. God doesn’t want you to slip away; He wants to give you a public testimony. Your wholeness matters.

 Reflection Question:

Why did Jesus want her to speak up instead of slipping away?

 Bite 3 – New Name, New Peace, Luke 8:48 (WEB)

⁴⁸ He said to her, ‘Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.’

Jesus called her Daughter. In one word, she went from a social outcast to part of the family of God. Her faith didn’t just stop the bleeding; it started a new life. Jesus always gives you more than what you originally came for. He provided not only what she wanted (which was to be cured), but what she needed, that is wholeness.

 Reflection Question:

What labels does Jesus want to replace in your life?
