He said to her, ‘Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.’

✨ Author’s Foreword (Intro/Reflection Setup)

“Unclean, Unclean, Unclean!”

In the Jewish law, as depicted in the Pentateuch, many illnesses and conditions could make a person “unclean.” Those labeled unclean could not enter the temple, attend gatherings, or move freely in the community. Some were restricted to their homes or pushed outside normal society. They had to announce their condition whenever they came near people.

Imagine living in a world where you had to brandish your “dirty secret” like the old Scarlet Letter—exposed, ashamed, and isolated.

Now imagine carrying that weight not for a few days, but for twelve years.

📖 Appetizer – Twelve Years of Pain, Luke 8:42b–43a

“...But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. ⁴³ A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years...”

She had spent everything she had on physicians. No one could help her. Her body was weak, her money was gone, and her hope was hanging by a thread.

You’ve tried every YouTube remedy, every social media hack, every doctor, every urgent care, every “miracle” treatment and payment plan... and still no solution. Your resources are drained, and the situation hasn’t changed. That was the woman’s reality.

Imagine having a condition that silently drains you from the inside for over a decade. No clear answers. No lasting relief. Just ongoing pain, shame, and exhaustion.

Reflection:

Have you ever been in a season where you tried everything but still had to rely on faith for breakthrough?

Main Course – Faith That Reaches Out

Bite 1 – A Desperate Touch, Luke 8:43b–44

“...who had spent all her living on physicians and could not be healed by any, came behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak. Immediately the flow of her blood stopped.”

If you’ve ever been to a concert of a popular person, you know how thick the crowd is to just get close to the stage. ...She didn’t ask for the microphone, or a front-row seat, or a special audience. She just wanted to get close enough to touch Jesus—close enough to reach for the One everyone else was only crowding around.

Well, Jesus was on his way to heal a sick child, when she reached for the hem in a “risk-it-all” move. She wasn’t even supposed to be there.

Faith is often a desperate reach toward Jesus when you have nothing left to lose. Her faith pulled power directly from the Source, and that was the difference between the people who were there just to be there and a woman you refused to be denied wholeness (or a cure).

Thought:

How hard would it be to get close enough to touch a world leader or celebrity? Yet this woman pushed through every barrier—cultural, physical, emotional—to reach the King of kings.

Reflection:

Where in your life do you need that same “pressing through” kind of faith?

Bite 2 – “Who Touched Me?” Luke 8:45–47

⁴⁵ Jesus said, ‘Who touched me?’ When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, ‘Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’ ’ ⁴⁶ But Jesus said, ‘Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.’ ⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.”

The crowd was pressing against Jesus, but only one touch drew power. Proximity is not the same as faith. Many bumped into Him, but only one believed Him for change for the issue that ailed her life.

□ CST:

Jesus felt the pull of faith. Power responded not to casual contact but to intentional belief. When the Holy Spirit meets genuine faith, something always shifts.

Reflection:

Recall a time when you had to “touch heaven”—a situation that drove you to seek God’s power above all else. What was happening, and how did that season change you?

Bite 3 – New Name, New Peace, Luke 8:48

He said to her, ‘Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.’

One sentence changed everything—her health, her status, and her identity. She was no longer “unclean woman”; she was Daughter.

Author’s Commentary

Her long struggle ended with a single word of affirmation from Jesus. When He calls you Daughter or Son, He doesn’t just fix your issue—He restores your place in the family. The Woman with the Issue of Blood is a story that many can relate to you having a problem and unfortunately making God or prayer your “last resort”, it’s like the dreaded red button under the glass that you do NOT want to push! Push - Pray Until Something Happens - let your faith connect with the Word and power of God. Nobody is saying don’t go to the doctor, but the message is about bringing your faith to the doctor’s office and bring your ISSUES to the altar.

So many of us have suffered in things for a long while, and Jesus is waiting on us to do our part and trust him with it. Break through the doubt, press through the challenges and arrive at the hem of God and the spiritual connection to the healing that was released when our Savior was tied and hung on a tree. Through an long term unclean messed up, messy situation - though her blood was filthy his Blood is cleansing and through it there is victory to everyone who is willing to accept all the benefits of being redeemed, hallelujah!

Dessert – Push Through the Crowd

Sometimes our faith becomes the “last resort,” but God invites us to make it our first response. The woman could have stayed home, stayed hidden, stayed hopeless—but she chose to move.

Like her, we are called to:

- Push through doubt.
- Push through fear.
- Push through shame.
- Push through the noise of the crowd...

...until we reach the hem of His garment.

Reflection:

What crowd—voices, opinions, fears, distractions—do you need to push through right now to get closer to Jesus?

To-Go Box

Her blood made her unclean.

His blood made her whole.

Through Christ’s sacrifice:

- We are redeemed, not rejected.
- We are restored, not ruined.
- We are cleansed, not canceled.
- No matter how long the struggle has lasted, victory is still possible through His blood.

Carry this with you:

When you reach for Jesus in faith, He always has more healing than you have hurt.

Prayer

“Lord Jesus, Thank You that Your blood still heals, restores, and makes us whole. Thank You for seeing us when we feel unseen, and for calling us ‘Daughter’ and ‘Son’ when the world calls us ‘unclean.’

Give us the courage to press through every crowd of fear, shame, or doubt to reach You. Teach us to make faith our first response, not our last resort. Where we are bleeding in our bodies, minds, or hearts, let Your healing power flow.

Fill us with Your peace as we walk forward in faith.

In Your mighty name, amen.”
