

Dessert – Faith That Didn’t Wait, Heb 11:31

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Rahab could’ve waited until things were safer, clearer, or more convenient-but procrastination had one problem-there was no guarantee. Instead, she moved when God gave her the chance. There is no perfect or “good” or “ideal” time to accept salvation, the best time is NOW.

God didn’t highlight Rahab’s past to shame her but to magnify His grace. Her label didn’t stop her legacy. Faith rewrote her ending—and it can rewrite yours too.

Youth Check-in

Finish this sentence: “God, I don’t want to wait until it’s safe to obey You. Help me to _____.”

To-Go Box

- Faith can start in unexpected places and people.
 - Hearing what God has done can lead you to trust what He’s doing now.
 - Your history does not disqualify you; your response to God’s invitation defines you.

Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Rahab’s courage and for showing me that You can use anyone who trusts You. Help me listen when You speak, obey even when it feels risky, and believe that You can rewrite my story and my family’s story. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write a short prayer asking God to grow your courage and faith like Rahab’s:

Activity – True or False: Rahab’s Faith

Read each statement and circle T for True or F for False.

1. Rahab was an Israelite woman raised in a godly home. T / F
2. The scarlet rope was a sign of the agreement between Rahab and the spies. T / F
3. Rahab’s actions showed both faith in God and concern for her family. T / F
4. Rahab’s faith only affected her, not anyone else. T / F
5. Rahab is later mentioned in the family line of Jesus. T / F

BM3 — Lesson 2: Abigail

Wisdom on the Move

Theme: Faith & Foresight

Background Text: 1 Samuel 25:2–35

Key Verse: Proverbs 15:1 (WEB)

“A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.”

Wisdom in motion: faith that chooses peace over pride.

Appetizer – The Courage to Step In, 1 Sam 25:18–20

¹⁸ Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two containers of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five seahs^[a] of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys. ¹⁹ She said to her young men, “Go on before me. Behold, I am coming after you.” But she didn’t tell her husband, Nabal. ²⁰ As she rode on her donkey, and came down hidden by the mountain, behold, David and his men came down toward her, and she met them.

David was angry because Nabal had insulted him and refused to help. Recognizing how foul her husband behaved, Abigail stepped in quickly to bring food, humility, and peace before things got violent. Abigail didn’t wait for someone else to fix it. She saw danger coming and moved with wisdom and courage, this is called intercession or prevention or de-escalation.

Abigail didn’t wait for permission to do what was right. She used foresight—seeing danger ahead and acting to prevent disaster. Her faith wasn’t just belief; it was movement toward peace.

Reflection Question:

Have you ever seen drama or conflict building and wished someone would step in with wisdom? What did you do?

Main Course

Bite 1 – The Foolishness of Nabal, 1 Sam 25:10–11, 14, 17

¹⁰ Nabal answered David’s servants and said, “Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants who break away from their masters these days. ¹¹ Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don’t know where they come from?”

¹⁴ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, “Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master; and he insulted them. ¹⁷ Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master and against all his house, for he is such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to him."

Nabal's arrogance created a dangerous situation. His pride didn't just affect him—it put his whole household at risk. Nabal's servants quickly pulled up the 'receipts,' recalling exactly how David and his men had been a wall of protection for them and the flock. Even with the facts on the table, Nabal's ego was too loud for him to recognize David's kindness or judge the moment correctly.

His arrogance—that 'better than everyone else' attitude—blinded him to the fact that doing right by David's men wasn't just a suggestion; it was a requirement. It's a powerful lesson for us: someone else's foolishness can trigger a storm you didn't ask for, but even then, you can still choose wisdom and change the forecast.

Reflection Question:

When have you seen someone's pride or anger make things worse for everyone around them?

Bite 2 – Put the Blame on Me, 1 Sam 25:23-24, 28

²³ When Abigail saw David, she hurried and got off her donkey, and fell before David on her face and bowed herself to the ground. ²⁴ She fell at his feet and said, "On me, my lord, on me be the blame! Please let your servant speak in your ears. Hear the words of your servant.

²⁸ Please forgive the trespass of your servant. For Yahweh will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights Yahweh's battles. Evil will not be found in you all your days.

Abigail took responsibility for something she didn't do, in order to save lives. She reminded David of his calling and helped him think about his future reputation.

"Standing in the gap isn't about being a doormat; it's about being a shock absorber. It means you care more about God's honor and keeping people safe than about winning a petty argument. An 'Abigail move' can literally save a life—I know because it happened to me.

Author's Testimony

In high school, I had a gun pulled on me just for telling a story that 'triggered' someone. Another teen stepped in—she didn't have to get involved, but she saw the 'glitch' before it crashed everyone's future.

She moved fast, talked him down, and convinced him to put it away. I had to report it, but if it wasn't for my Abigail intercepting that disaster, I wouldn't be here to tell the story. Sometimes God calls you to absorb the tension so the situation doesn't explode."

Reflection Questions:

What does it mean to “stand in the gap” for someone? When is it wise to step in—and when might it be unsafe?

Bite 3 – A Wise Outcome, 1 Sam 25:32–33, 35

³² David said to Abigail, “Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me! ³³ Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, who have kept me today from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand.

³⁵ So David received from her hand that which she had brought him. Then he said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice and have granted your request.”

David calmed down. The fight stopped before it ever started. Abigail’s actions saved her household and kept David from making a choice he’d regret. Hallelujah, praise the Lord he listened to reason.

One wise, humble conversation can stop a lot of damage.

Reflection Question:

Think of a time when you calmed a situation down—or wish you had. What would wisdom look like next time?

Dessert – When God Handles It, 1 Sam 25:38–39

³⁸ About ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal, so that he died. ³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed is Yahweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil. Yahweh has returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head.”

God handled Nabal in His own time. Abigail’s job wasn’t revenge—it was obedience and wisdom. David had to exercise restraint and to recognize and listen to the wisdom. God did the rest, hallelujah and amen.

Reflection Prompt:

Write one sentence asking God to help you choose wisdom instead of revenge.

To-Go Box

- Pride creates problems; wisdom creates peace.
- Sometimes God uses you to de-escalate what someone else started.
- Let God handle judgment; your role is to respond with wisdom and courage.

Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Abigail’s example of courage and wisdom. Help me not to react out of pride or anger. Show me when to speak up, when to step in, and when to step back and let You handle it. Give me a gentle answer and a wise heart. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Personal Prayer Space

Write a short prayer asking God to help you respond with wisdom in conflict:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. Abigail acted with _____ and faith, not fear.
2. Nabal’s pride led to his _____.
3. David praised God for Abigail’s _____.
4. Abigail’s wisdom prevented _____ and brought peace.

Why Soul Food?

Dr. Dee Brown
Series Founder

Growing up in Boston, my grandmother, Pastor Pearl Doctor, always brought both the food and the Word to the table. You couldn't walk into her home without smelling something cooking and hearing something spiritual on the radio. Whether you came in upset, excited, nervous, or afraid, she would bring you back to center—with the Word of God in one hand and a plate of food in the other.

She didn't wait until Sunday to offer support. She lived what I now call: Truth Served Daily—sharing God's Word like Heavenly bread alongside whatever she had on the stove. I watched family, and friends, alike find peace in that kind of soul food, the kind that nourishes the inner person and prepares us for more than the moment we're in.

This Soul Food Bible Study workbook was born from that legacy. Designed for personal devotion or Bible study circles, use in cell group ministry, and Sunday school settings, each lesson offers bite-sized, life-giving “courses” to help you grow in wholeness, deepen fellowship, and share what God is doing in you with others. My hope is that these pages bring comfort, clarity, and courage—and inspire you to pass that soul food along. Be blessed!
