Introduction - Faith & Foresight

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” — Hebrews 11:1 (KJV)

Faith and foresight are meant to walk hand-in-hand in our journey with God. Faith helps us trust what we cannot yet see, and foresight helps us prepare for what God has promised—even before He shows us all the details. Together, they invite us to follow God’s lead when the road ahead still looks uncertain.

Hebrews 11:1 tells us, “Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.” Faith lifts our eyes past the present moment and anchors our hearts in God’s truth instead of our changing circumstances. Foresight—spiritual insight shaped by God’s perspective—then guides the decisions we make today so they line up with what God is doing tomorrow.

Scripture gives us clear examples of people who lived with both faith and foresight. Noah built the ark long before the first raindrop fell (Genesis 6). Abraham obeyed God’s call and left home without knowing his destination (Hebrews 11:8). Joseph stored grain during years of abundance because he trusted God’s warning about the famine ahead (Genesis 41). Their lives show a consistent pattern: faith listens to God, and foresight gets ready for His plan.

In this study, we’ll see that walking with God takes more than belief—it takes vision grounded in faith. As we grow in spiritual foresight, we stop merely reacting to what’s happening around us and start responding to what God has spoken within us. Faith gives us the boldness to move forward; foresight helps us move with wisdom and purpose.

Breakfast Edition Month 3 - Lesson 1: Rahab

Faith That Took Action

Theme: Faith & Foresight

Background Text: Joshua 2:1–21; 6:22–25

Key Verse: Hebrews 11:31 (WEB)

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Faith that acts before the promise is visible.

Appetizer – The Risk That Changed Her Life, Josh 2:1, 3–4

Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two men out of Shittim as spies, saying, “Go, view the land, including Jericho.” They went and came into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and slept there.

³ Jericho’s king sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered into your house; for they have come to spy out all the land. ⁴ The woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I didn’t know where they came from.

Rahab had to choose: stay safe with the crowd, or step out in risky obedience toward God. Her decision wasn’t just about her; it affected her whole family. She did not know the God of the Israelites but she knew of what he had done in and for His people and that was enough for her to regard them higher than her culture and her king.

Faith acted before the promise was visible. She chose courage in the face of death.

Reflection Question

Has your faith ever been tested in a way that demanded courage before you saw the results?

Main Course

Bite 1 – The Risk That Redefined a Life, Josh 2:8–11a

⁸ Before they had lain down, she came up to them on the roof. ⁹ She said to the men, “I know that Yahweh has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you.

¹⁰ For we have heard how Yahweh dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed. ¹¹ As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, and there wasn’t any more spirit in any man, because of you: for Yahweh your God, he is God

Faith comes by hearing—and Rahab proves it. She believed without ever seeing the Red Sea part or the Amorite kings fall. Testimonies of God’s power traveled farther than Israel’s feet, and those stories were enough to birth faith in her heart. Rahab wasn’t an Israelite. She didn’t grow up in church or know all the laws. But she heard what God had done—and believed it.

Her belief in a God she had never met was strong enough to inspire disobedience in danger. She feared (reverenced) God of Israel over man.

Reflection Questions

What’s one story (from the Bible or real life) that has strengthened your faith in God?

Bite 2 – When Faith Meets Action, Josh 2:12–14, 17-18

¹² Now therefore, please swear to me by Yahweh, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father’s house, and give me a true sign; ¹³ and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death.”

¹⁴ The men said to her, “Our life for yours, if you don’t talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when Yahweh gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

¹⁷ The men said to her, “We will be guiltless of this your oath which you’ve made us to swear.

¹⁸ Behold, when we come into the land, tie this line of scarlet thread in the window which you used to let us down. Gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household.

Rahab’s temptation was the King and his men, her culture -instead of going with what she knew, she went with what was right. It wasn’t the popular choice, but it was a life changing one! Rahab didn’t just believe;

she made a covenant. The scarlet rope became a sign: when judgment came, her house would be marked by faith and spared.

Her faith wasn't passive; it was tied to obedience.

Reflection Question

What “scarlet rope” of obedience have you hung out as proof of your trust in God?

Bite 3 – Faith That Rewrites the Future, Josh 6:22–23, 25 (paraphrased)

²²Joshua said... “Go into the prostitute’s house, and bring out from there the woman, and all that she has, as you swore to her.” ²⁴So the young men... brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had... ²⁵ Joshua saved Rahab... and she lives in the middle of Israel to this day...

Rahab’s faith saved her whole household. While we could be tempted to ‘park it right there’ ...on the fact that she made sure her whole family benefited and avoided selfish acts...her story doesn’t stop but transitions from there! Later, she would be included in the family line that led to Jesus. Not bad for someone everyone else would have written off.

Faith not only saves—it transforms. Rahab went from outcast to insider, from pagan prostitute to part of God’s covenant people, and eventually into the family line of the Messiah Himself. Sometimes, the least likely person carries the greatest impact.

Reflection Question

Who might be saved, inspired, or transformed by your act of faith today?

Dessert – Faith That Didn’t Wait, Hebrews 11:31

“By faith, Rahab the prostitute didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.”

Rahab could’ve waited until things were safer, clearer, or more convenient-but procrastination had one problem-there was no guarantee. Instead, she moved when God gave her the chance. There is no perfect or “good” or “ideal” time to accept salvation, the best time is NOW.

God didn’t highlight Rahab’s past to shame her but to magnify His grace. Her label didn’t stop her legacy. Faith rewrote her ending—and it can rewrite yours too.

Reflection:

Write one sentence of gratitude to God for giving you a future that's bigger than your past:

To-Go Box

- Faith hears what God has done and believes what He will do.
- Rahab's courage shows that obedience in a single moment can shift an entire family's destiny.
- Your history does not disqualify you; your response to God's invitation defines you.

Carry this truth:

Faith acts first; foresight trusts God with the outcome.

Don't let fear of judgment, failure, or your past silence your obedience. Like Rahab, your courage today can redeem generations tomorrow.

Word Study

- Rahab / Rachab (Hebrew: רַחַב) – “Spacious, broad.” Symbolic of enlargement and room made through faith.
- Scarlet Rope – A sign of covenant and protection, echoing the Passover blood on the doorposts and pointing forward to the blood of Christ.
- Foresight – Spiritual anticipation rooted in trust that God is already working beyond what we see.

Activity – True or False: Rahab’s Faith

1. Rahab was born an Israelite woman.
2. The scarlet rope represented obedience and covenant.
3. Rahab acted only out of fear, not faith.
4. Rahab’s faith saved her entire family.
5. Rahab later appeared in Jesus’ family line.

Author’s Testimony

I once faced my own test of faith. I needed funds to remodel a home for veterans in need. Quotes came in as high as $30,000, and my account was empty. But I prayed, “Lord, You know my needs, Jehovah-Jireh, my provider.” Within a week, God sent two unexpected renters who paid exactly $12,000—the remaining amount I needed to complete the work.

Faith made a way I could not see. Like Rahab, I learned that obedience, no matter how small, can open doors for God’s miraculous provision. Father, help each reader to boldly break away from things that are holding them back and embrace the opportunities to grow in your and walk into their purpose, in Jesus name amen. 🙏

BM 3 – Lesson 2: Abigail

Wisdom on the Move

Theme: Faith & Foresight

Background Text: 1 Sam 25:2–39; Prov 15:1

Key Verse: Proverbs 15:1

“A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.”

Wisdom in motion: faith that chooses peace over pride.

Appetizer – The Courage to Step In, 1 Sam 25:18–20

¹⁸ Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two containers of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five seahs^[a] of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys. ¹⁹ She said to her young men, “Go on before me. Behold, I am coming after you.” But she didn’t tell her husband, Nabal. ²⁰ As she rode on her donkey, and came down hidden by the mountain, behold, David and his men came down toward her, and she met them.

David was angry because Nabal had insulted him and refused to help. Recognizing how foul her husband behaved, Abigail stepped in quickly to bring food, humility, and peace before things got violent.

Abigail wasted no time. She quickly gathered two hundred loaves of bread, two containers of wine, five prepared sheep, roasted grain, clusters of raisins, and cakes of figs. She packed them on donkeys and said to her servants, “Go on ahead. I will follow you shortly.” But she didn’t tell her husband Nabal what she was doing. Sometimes moving strategically is moving stealthily!

Reflection Question

When was the last time you acted on faith to prevent harm or conflict?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Nabal’s Foolishness, 1 Sam 25:10–11, 14,17

¹⁰ Nabal answered David’s servants and said, “Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants who break away from their masters these days. ¹¹ Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don’t know where they come from?”

¹⁴ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, “Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master; and he insulted them. ¹⁷ Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master and against all his house, for he is such a worthless fellow that one can’t speak to him.”

Later, one of Nabal’s servants told Abigail how David’s men had been good to them in the fields, how they had not been harmed or stolen from, and yet Nabal “rushed on them” with insults. He warned her that disaster was hanging over the household because Nabal was such a worthless man “that one can’t speak to him”

CST

Nabal’s arrogance created a crisis. Foolish pride will always test someone’s faith. Abigail’s faith met that test with wisdom, not words of war. The bible says in James 1:19-20 (KJV, paraphrased), that we should be ‘quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to wrath. Because the wrath of man doesn’t produce the righteousness of God. Nabal wasn’t trying to hear anyone of reason and sometimes we hear through emotional filters, and it is important for us to identify and call out these barriers to the truth, just like Nabal’s servants did to Abigail.

Reflection Question

Have you ever had to respond to someone’s anger or disrespect with peace instead of pride?

Bite 2 – Put the Blame on Me, 1 Sam 25:23-24, 28

²³ When Abigail saw David, she hurried and got off her donkey, and fell before David on her face and bowed herself to the ground. ²⁴ She fell at his feet and said, “On me, my lord, on me be the blame! Please let your servant speak in your ears. Hear the words of your servant.

²⁸ Please forgive the trespass of your servant. For Yahweh will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights Yahweh’s battles. Evil will not be found in you all your days.

She strategically pointed David back to God’s promise over his life—that Yahweh would surely make him ruler over Israel. She urged him not to carry needless bloodshed or vengeance on his record when that day came. Abigail took on the blame for her husband’s offense—an act of courage and foresight. She spoke life into David’s calling instead of fueling his wrath. Her humility redirected the entire situation.

"Standing in the gap isn’t about being a doormat; it’s about being a shock absorber. It means you care more about God’s honor and keeping people safe than about winning a petty argument. An 'Abigail move' can literally save a life—I know because it happened to me.

Reflection Questions

- What does it mean to “stand in the gap” for someone else’s mistake?

- Have you ever had to de-escalate a situation you didn’t cause?

- Did your response bring God honor or dishonor?

Bite 3 – A Wise Outcome, 1 Sam 25:32–35

³² David said to Abigail, “Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me! ³³ Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, who have kept me today from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand.

³⁵ So David received from her hand that which she had brought him. Then he said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice and have granted your request.”

David calmed down. The fight stopped before it ever started. Abigail’s actions saved her household and kept David from making a choice he’d regret. Hallelujah, praise the Lord he listened to reason.

One act of wisdom can save an entire household. Faith foresaw danger; wisdom found peace. Abigail’s actions honored God, David, and her own integrity.

Reflection Question

What would the world look like if more of us prayed for wisdom before reacting?

Dessert – When God Handles It, 1 Sam 25:38–39

³⁸ About ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal, so that he died. ³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed is Yahweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil. Yahweh has returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head.”

About ten days later, the Lord struck Nabal, and he died. When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise the Lord, who has avenged the insult I received from Nabal and has kept me from doing it myself.” Then David sent messengers to propose marriage to Abigail.

When God vindicates, He also elevates. Abigail’s humility brought her favor—she went from the wife of a fool to the bride of a future king.

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight are more than belief—they are wisdom in motion.
- Pride creates unnecessary battles; humility opens unexpected doors.
- When we humble ourselves and act with discernment, God can turn conflict into protection and even promotion.

Closing Prayer (Abigail – Wisdom on the Move)

“Lord, thank You for Abigail’s example of wisdom and courage. Help me respond with grace when other people’s foolishness creates messes around me. Teach me to honor You, treat Your people well, and trust You to handle what I can’t. In Jesus’ name, amen.

Personal Prayer Space

Write your own reflection or prayer to God about trusting His Word and His authority in your life:

Word Study

- Abigail (Hebrew: אֲבִיגַיִל – “Avigayil”) — “My father’s joy” or “source of joy.” Her character embodied the beauty of her name; she became a channel of peace and joy even in chaos.
- Nabal (Hebrew: נָבָל – “Nabal”) — “Foolish” or “senseless.” His actions reflected his name, showing how arrogance blinds us to wisdom and leads to destruction.
- Scapegoat (Hebrew: עֲזָזָאֵל – “Azazel”) — From Leviticus 16, referring to the goat released into the wilderness carrying the sins of the people. Symbolically, Abigail bore the “guilt” of her household to intercede for peace.
- Foresight — Spiritual sensitivity that anticipates and prepares for what God is revealing ahead of time.

Write one line about where you need foresight right now:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. Abigail acted with _____ and faith, not fear.
2. Nabal’s pride led to his _____.
3. David praised God for Abigail’s _____.
4. Abigail’s wisdom prevented _____ and brought peace.

BM3 — Lesson 3: The Centurion

Faith That Commands Results

Theme: Trusting Jesus' Word

Background Text: Matt 8:5–13; Luke 7:1–10

Key Verse: Matt 8:10 (WEB)

“When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said... ‘Most certainly I tell you, I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel.’”

Faith that trusts the Word, not the circumstances.

Appetizer – The Power of the Word, Matt 8:5–8

⁵ When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him for help, ⁶ saying, “Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented.” ⁷ Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.” The centurion answered, ‘Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.’

The centurion didn’t ask Jesus for a visit—he asked Him for a word. He believed that one word from Jesus could travel farther and work faster than any doctor, medicine, or ritual.

Faith is not about proximity—it’s about posture. The centurion knew Jesus didn’t have to be physically present to be powerfully effective. True belief doesn’t demand evidence; it simply trusts the Word.

Reflection Question

Have you ever believed God for something without needing to “see” how He would do it?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Faith That Understands Authority Matt 8:8–9a

The centurion answered, “Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes...”

He didn’t need Jesus to walk to his house. He understood that if Jesus had authority, then His word was enough—even from a distance. Real faith doesn’t always need a physical sign. It trusts that when Jesus speaks, it’s already done.

CST Thought

Humility is the bridge to divine help. The centurion had status, money, and influence—but he laid all of that down at Jesus’ feet. Faith is strongest when pride is silent.

Reflection Question

How does humility open the door for faith to operate in your life?

Bite 2 – Faith That Amazed Jesus, Matt 8:10, 13

¹⁰ When Jesus heard it, he marveled and said to those who followed, “Most certainly I tell you, I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel. ¹³ Jesus said to the centurion, “Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed.” His servant was healed in that hour.

When he looked at Jesus, he recognized heavenly authority at work: the same power that governs sickness, distance, and timing. Jesus was amazed at this man’s faith. Not because he was perfect or religious, but because he believed Jesus’ word was enough.

Author’s Commentary

Your background doesn’t limit your faith. Jesus is moved by trust, not titles. Aligning with the Great “I AM” starts with your words. Think about it: in the very first chapter of the Bible, the Creator didn’t use hands or tools to build the universe—He spoke ten times, and reality shifted.

Proverbs 18:21 tells us that life and death are held in the power of the tongue, and Isaiah 55:11 explains the authority behind that release. The Centurion understood the assignment. He knew that while "laying on of hands" might make people feel better, the real work happens when a word is released. He didn't need a ritual; he just needed a command. That word ricochets through eternity until it hits the target.

In the modern world, we say "Say Less"—because when you are walking in strong faith, you don't need a long speech. That level of trust was the "IT" factor that turned his request into a power move.

He believed that if Jesus spoke, creation itself had to respond. He saw that Jesus carried a higher command than Rome—kingdom authority.

Reflection Question

When you pray, do you believe the words you speak in Jesus' name carry that same delegated authority?

Bite 3 – The Sent Word, John 1:1,14

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ¹⁴ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

The centurion had many reasons why he didn't believe Jesus needed to physically come, but Emmanuel, was happy someone caught the revelation. When he sent the word, he sent HIMSELF, because he was and is the Word! Whew...

He sent grace, and the truth that he was a healer, and a provider. In the past we use to send notes or mail by men on horseback, or by train... Now we have devices that allow us to send our thoughts via recorded files or text across oceans and time zones. They did not have electricity and the internet but they had faith and the Son of God walking with them...who was God's word wrapped in clay. Since he is wholeness and healing ...he just released it with his servant's recovery in mind... and in an hour he was well again!

Reflection Question

Who could you be praying for or believing for, like the centurion did for his servant?

Dessert – Beyond a Resume - A Word Is Enough

Jesus didn't respond to the wealth, the power, or the "good guy" resume. He responded to a heart in need. Emmanuel—God with us—met a level of faith that understood Christ's authority isn't limited by physical presence. The Centurion knew that the Will and the Word of God were enough to cross any threshold and restore what was broken.

When we say "Amen," we are literally saying "It is so." It's the moment we stop looking for a physical sign and come into total agreement with what God has already spoken. The Centurion didn't need a visit; he just needed a Word. He knew that once the Word was released, the shift was already final.

What would shift in your prayer life if you trusted what God said more than what you see?

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight together teach us that authority in prayer isn't about volume or visibility—it's about confidence in the Word of God.
 - Humility positions us to receive what pride would block.
 - Real faith does not require God to "prove it" first; it rests in what He has already spoken.
 - When you recognize Jesus' authority, you can walk in your own God-given authority with boldness and peace.

Prayer

"Lord Jesus, thank You for the centurion's example of simple, strong faith. Help me to trust Your Word more than what I see and to pray with confidence in Your authority, not my own strength. Teach me to stay humble, to believe that when You speak, things change. In Your name, amen."

Word Study

- Centurion (Latin: Centurio) – A Roman officer over about one hundred soldiers; represents leadership through discipline, obedience, and order.
- Authority (Greek: Exousia, ἐξουσία) – Permission and delegated power; the right to act. Jesus carries authority over nature, sickness, sin, and even death.
- Faith (Greek: Pistis, πίστις) – Trust, conviction, and complete reliance upon God’s truth and character.

Write a short line about where you need to trust Jesus’ authority more fully:

Activity – Fill in the Blank

1. The centurion’s faith worked even at a _____.
2. Jesus said, “I have not found anyone in Israel with such great _____.”
3. True faith doesn’t need evidence; it trusts the _____.
4. The centurion understood the power of _____.

(Check the Appendix for answers)

BM3 — Lesson 4: Joseph of Arimathea

Trust the Process

Theme: Faith & Foresight

Background Text: Matthew 27:57–61; John 19:38–42

Key Verse: John 19:38 (WEB)

“After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body.”

 Faith that honors Jesus even when the story looks finished.

Appetizer – Faith in Action, John 19:38a; Matt 27:57–58

³⁸ After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews,

⁵⁷ When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: ⁵⁸ He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered

Joseph of Arimathea was a rich man, a respected council member, and a quiet follower of Jesus. When many had run away in fear, he stepped forward in love and courage. He went straight to Pilate and asked for the body of the crucified Christ—a bold, risky request that publicly tied his name to Jesus at the very moment things looked the worst.

Even in loss, faith moves us to act in honor. Joseph’s decision to claim Jesus’ body was not loud or flashy, but it was a quiet and powerful display of devotion when many others had fled.

Reflection Question

When have you had to act on your faith quietly but boldly, even when others were afraid to stand?

Main Course – The Pivot

Bite 1 Provision in Place, Matt 27:59–60

⁵⁹Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth ⁶⁰and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.

Joseph used what he had already prepared for himself—a new tomb carved in the rock—to honor Jesus. He wrapped the Lord’s body carefully, placed Him in that tomb, and sealed it with a great stone. What Joseph once thought was for his future became part of God’s bigger plan.

God’s provision is never late. Long before Jesus’ crucifixion, the Father had already chosen and prepared Joseph to meet this moment. What looked like a personal investment (a private tomb) became a kingdom assignment.

Author’s Commentary

It wasn’t just a believer who requested the body of Jesus, but Joseph of Arimathea—a wealthy man and quiet follower of Christ. He didn’t realize that the tomb he built for himself would one day hold the body of the Savior of the world. His influence and position on the council gave him access to Pilate, and because of that, the king granted his request for the body. God had already provided everything needed from Christ’s birth to His burial. All we must do is trust the process.

Sometimes the Lord will place you in a role, job, or position you don’t fully understand—not for your comfort, but for His assignment.

Reflection Question

Is there something God has called you to do that you don’t yet understand? Are you willing to trust the process while your faith grows?

Bite 2 – Courage to Be Counted, John 19:38–39

³⁸After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. ³⁹Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds

Joseph had been a secret disciple, afraid of what the Jewish leaders might say. But at the cross, his secret faith became public action. Nicodemus, who once came to Jesus at night, joined him in this bold, costly act of honor. Both men stepped out of the shadows to align themselves with a “condemned” Messiah.

There comes a time when quiet belief must become visible obedience. Faith that stays hidden forever never fully walks in purpose. Joseph and Nicodemus show us that even if you started secretly, God can still call you to stand boldly.

Bite 3 – Faith Sealed in Stone, John 19:40–42

So they took Jesus’ body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. Then because of the Jews’ Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

Everything about this scene looked final: the spices, the linen, the new tomb, the stone. Yet heaven knew this was not the end—it was a setup. The garden tomb was not a permanent resting place; it was the stage for resurrection.

When you trust God’s process, even what looks like a burial can become the birthplace of breakthrough. What we call “the end” may be where God is just getting started.

Author’s Commentary

Sometimes the prompt feels “silly,” but obedience is the key to a chain of events only God can see. While stationed in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, I felt a sudden urge at the altar to hug and speak life to a sister who was hurting. In my head, it felt random, but I chose to move anyway.

I didn’t know that another woman in the service, Sister Williams, had just challenged God for a sign that He was still listening. She actually had a vision of me hugging that sister before I even stood up. Because I didn’t let my “lack of action” get in the way, a chain reaction happened: the sister at the altar received comfort, and Williams received the divine confirmation she desperately needed. One “silly” step of faith can be the answer to someone else’s secret prayer.

To-Go Box

- Faith and foresight remind us that obedience opens doors long before we know we’ll need to walk through them.
- God often uses our resources, positions, and plans for purposes bigger than we imagined.
- Trust that God’s plans are already in motion—even when you can’t see the full picture yet.
- Like Joseph of Arimathea, your quiet preparation today may be part of a major move of God tomorrow.

Closing Prayer

“Lord, thank You for Joseph of Arimathea’s example of quiet, courageous faith. Help me to trust Your process, even when I don’t understand every step. Use what I have and where I am for Your purpose, not just my plans. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

Word Study

- Arimathea – A town near Jerusalem; the name is associated with “heights” or a high place.
- Joseph (Hebrew: Yosef) – “He will add” or “He increases” — prophetic of increase and multiplication.
- Trust (Hebrew: Batach) – To rely on, be confident, or secure; a firm confidence in God’s provision and timing.

Write a short line about where you need to batach—to lean hard into trusting God’s process:

Activity – Connect the Process

Match each act of faith (left) with the result (right).

Match	Activity	Phrase
	1 Joseph’s request for Jesus’ body	A The burial fulfilled prophecy with reverence.
	2 Wrapping Jesus in linen	B A temporary seal that set up resurrection
	3 Building his own tomb	C Jesus’ body was placed in a tomb of honor.
	4 Rolling the stone	D God used a personal plan for divine purpose

Wellness Support Team

Charleston Wellness Center – thank you for reminding us that spiritual work flourishes best when mind, body, and soul are cared for together.

Editors

To my editors – including the gifted freelancers who labored behind their online pen names – thank you for your attentive eyes, patient revisions, and for helping me carry the heart of this message with clarity and excellence. Your quiet, faithful work is felt on every page.

Reference & Study Resources

Historical, linguistic, and cultural insights for the instructors and teachers- extended study materials have been formed by standard biblical reference works, concordances, and reputable academic sources, as outlined in the Reference & Historical Source Index (Instructor Edition) for this series. These tools were used under educational Fair Use to provide context, clarity, and enrichment for teachers and students alike.

FaithTech & Digital Tools

Special thanks to the emerging world of FaithTech and “greater works” digital tools that helped make this project possible at a fraction of the traditional cost, multiplying reach while honoring the message of the Gospel.

Above all, I give glory to God for every person, prayer, tool, and resource that has helped turn Soul Food from a vision into a living, teaching ministry on the page.

Why Soul Food?

Dr. Dee Brown,
Soul Series Founder

Growing up in Boston, my grandmother, Pastor Pearl Doctor, always brought both the food and the Word to the table. You couldn't walk into her home without smelling something cooking and hearing something spiritual on the radio. Whether you came in upset, excited, nervous, or afraid, she would bring you back to center—with the Word of God in one hand and a plate of food in the other.

She didn't wait until Sunday to offer support. She lived what I now call "Truth Served Daily"—sharing God's Word like heavenly bread alongside whatever she had on the stove. I watched family and friends find peace in that kind of soul food, the kind that nourishes the inner person and prepares us for more than the moment we're in.

This Soul Food Break*Fast Instructor Edition was born from that legacy. Designed for teachers, facilitators, and ministry leaders in Bible study circles, cell groups, and Sunday school settings, each lesson offers bite-sized, life-giving "courses" to help your class lay a strong foundation in Christ, deepen fellowship, and share what God is doing in them with others.

The Instructor Edition adds extra tools to support you as you lead: helpful historical notes, dual Scripture references, guidance for activity answers and review material, and tips for navigating "check points" or conversation starters so discussion doesn't stall but moves into the depth and height of biblical truth. It's built to help you direct wholesome, engaging lessons that can be completed in about 75–90 minutes.

Based on the class demographic you're serving, you can pair this Instructor Edition with the matching Soul Food Break*Fast workbook. With the purchase of this paperback, you also receive one free eBook, giving you a comprehensive view of the study as you prepare.

My hope is that these pages bring comfort, clarity, and courage—and inspire you to pass that soul food along.

Be Blessed!
