The Art of Through

“The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.”

— Psalm 23:1 (KJV)

Introduction – The Art of Through

“The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.” — Psalm 23:1 (KJV)

Ever feel like your life is on a permanent loading screen—like you’re stuck in the lobby while everybody else is leveling up? That’s what a “through” season can feel like: you’re trying, you’re praying, you’re doing the right things... but the situation still isn’t moving.

This month is about learning The Art of Through. It's not about how to dodge hard seasons, but how to walk with God in them—with faith, patience, and courage—until you come out stronger.

This month, we'll learn from four “through” stories:

- Joseph — went from pit to prison to purpose, and didn't lose his character.
- Hannah — carried deep pain, but turned it into bold prayer and kept showing up.
- Abram — trusted God's promise when the timeline didn't make sense.
- Chronic Conditions — pushed through obstacles for one touch from Jesus.

Psalm 23 doesn't say you'll never face valleys. It reminds you that the Shepherd is close—so even when you're going through, you don't have to go through it alone.

Breakfast Edition Month 2: Lesson 1 – Joseph

The Young Dreamer

 Theme: The Art of Through

 Background Text: Genesis 37; 39; 41–42

 Key Verse: Genesis 42:6 (WEB)

“Joseph’s brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth.”

Appetizer – The Dream That Started It All Genesis 37:5–8

⁵ Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him all the more. ⁶ He said to them, ‘Please hear this dream which I have dreamed: ⁷ for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and behold, your sheaves came around, and bowed down to my sheaf.’

⁸His brothers said to him, ‘Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?’ They hated him all the more for his dreams and for his words.”

Sometimes when God gives you a big vision, people closest to you might be the first to try and tear it down. The dream was real, but the reaction was rough.

Reflection Question:

Have you ever shared something you were excited about and felt shut down or hated for it?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Betrayed but Chosen, Genesis 37:18–19, 22a, 28

¹⁸ They saw him afar off, and before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him. ¹⁹ They said to one another, “Behold, this dreamer comes. ²² Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him”

²⁸ Midianites who were merchants passed by, and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. They brought Joseph into Egypt.

Joseph's own brothers threw him in a pit and sold him. The betrayal by his own blood cut deeper than the dry pit he sat in. Even as he was being hauled off as a slave, God was tracking his location. The "dreamer" was being positioned, even through rejection.

Reflection Question:

What's one "pit moment" in your life—where you felt dropped, betrayed, or abandoned?

Bite 2 – Integrity in the Dark, Gen 39:7–8,17, 20

⁷ After these things, his master's wife set her eyes on Joseph; and she said, 'Lie with me.' ⁸ But he refused, and said... 'How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?' ¹⁷ She spoke to him according to these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me, ²⁰ Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were bound, and he was there in custody.

Joseph chose purity even when nobody was watching. Doing the right thing led him to prison because of a lie. Joseph teaches us that integrity isn't about getting a quick reward; it's about keeping your character clean so God can trust you with a bigger stage later.

Youth Check-in:

Why is it still worth doing the right thing even when it brings temporary pain instead of a quick reward?

Bite 3 – From Prison to Palace, Gen 41:15-16, 37-39

¹⁵ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."¹⁶ Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, 'It isn't in me. God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace.'

³⁷ The thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. ³⁸ Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?" ³⁹ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Because God has shown you all of this, there is no one so discreet and wise as you.

In one day, God pulled Joseph from the dungeon to the throne room. Joseph walked out ready to serve and gave God all the credit. The years of "through" had prepared his heart to handle the weight of the promotion without losing his soul.

Reflection Question:

If God opened a huge door for you tomorrow, what kind of character would you need to be ready for it?

Dessert-Faith Rewarded, Gen 42:5–6

⁵ The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶ Joseph was the governor over the land. It was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth.

Joseph's story shows:

1. The dream was real, even when reality looked like a nightmare.
2. God never stopped working, even in the silence of the dungeon.
3. What they meant for evil, God worked it out for his good.

Reflection Question:

Right now, does your life feel more like the pit, the prison, or the palace? Why?

To-Go Box

- People can betray you, but God doesn't drop His plans for you.
- Integrity in secret prepares you for influence in public.
- God can use every step to move you toward purpose.

Write one sentence: "God, please use my process to prepare me for my purpose."

Prayer

"Father, thank You for Joseph's story. When I feel stuck or overlooked, remind me that You still see me. Help me stay faithful and honest, even when no one is watching. In Jesus' name, amen."

Personal Prayer Space

Talk to God about one area in your life that feels like a “pit” or a “prison” right now:

Activity -“Pit, Prison, Palace”

Circle which one you relate to most right now and explain why: PIT | PRISON | PALACE

Reason: _____

BM2 — Lesson 2: Hannah

Barren but Not Lifeless

 Theme: Prayer in the Pain

 Background Text: 1 Samuel 1–2

 Key Verse: 1 Samuel 1:27 (WEB)

“I prayed for this child, and Yahweh has given me my petition which I asked of him.”

Introduction

Elkanah was a Jewish man with two wives. In that culture, although love was part of why you married, having children was a major factor. Many times, barren women ended up divorced or pushed to the margins of society. Peninnah and Hannah were his wives, but Hannah could not have children.

Have you ever felt like you were “stuck” in someone else’s shadow? Like no matter what you did, the other person always seemed to be one step ahead? That was Hannah’s situation. Year after year, she was humiliated and reminded how much of a “failure” she was as a wife because she could not give Elkanah an heir.

At least her husband loved her, right? It didn’t feel that way. The voice of her tormentor cut deeply, and it seemed as if her prayers were bouncing off the ceiling.

Appetizer – The Weight of Waiting, 1 Sam 1:7–8

“So, year by year, when she went up to Yahweh’s house, her rival provoked her; therefore she wept, and didn’t eat. Elkanah her husband said to her, ‘Hannah, why do you weep? Why don’t you eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?’”

Hannah carried a deep ache: she couldn’t have children and was teased for it. Waiting on God can be lonely, especially when it feels like everyone else is getting exactly what you are praying for.

Reflection Question:

When have you felt like someone didn’t understand how deeply something was hurting you?

Main Course

Bite 1 – Provoked but Persistent, 1 Sam 1:9–11

“Hannah rose up after they had eaten... She was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to Yahweh, and wept bitterly. She vowed a vow, and said, ‘Yahweh of Armies, if you will indeed look at the affliction of your servant... and will give to your servant a boy, then I will give him to Yahweh all the days of his life...’”

Hannah brought her pain straight to God. She made a vow that shifted her perspective: she wasn't just asking for a child for herself; she was offering that child back to God. Persistence in prayer is often about moving from "give me" to "let me serve You with it."

Youth Check-in:

Do you know what a vow is? Have you ever made one?

Bite 2 – Misunderstood but Heard, 1 Sam 1:12–16

As she continued praying before Yahweh, Eli observed her mouth. Now Hannah spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk. Eli said to her, ‘How long will you be drunk? Get rid of your wine!’ Hannah answered, ‘No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before Yahweh.’

Even the priest misjudged her. When you are at your lowest, even "religious" people might misjudge your struggle. But Hannah didn't let a man's mistake stop her from talking to her Maker. God hears the prayers that are too deep for words.

Reflection Question:

What helps you remember that God sees your heart even when others don't?

Bite 3 – Promise Given, Promise Kept, 1 Sam 1:17–18, 20

¹⁶“Don’t consider your servant a wicked woman; for I have been speaking out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation.” ¹⁷Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; and may the God^[a] of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him.” ¹⁸She said, “Let your servant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went her way and ate; and her facial expression wasn’t sad any more.

²⁰When the time had come, Hannah conceived, and bore a son; and she named him Samuel,^[a] saying, “Because I have asked him of Yahweh.”

Peace showed up before the answer did. Hannah left her burden at the altar. She didn't have the baby yet, but she had the "yes" in her spirit. Sometimes God changes your heart before He changes your situation to prove He is your source of joy.

 Reflection Question:

Where do you need God's peace while you are still waiting on His answer?

 Dessert -The Song of Victory, 1 Sam 2:1–2

¹Hannah prayed, and said, 'My heart exults in Yahweh! My horn is exalted in Yahweh. My mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I rejoice in your salvation. ²There is no one as holy as Yahweh, for there is no one besides you, nor is there any rock like our God.'

Hannah's story reminds us that trust in God deepens through the wait. Her song of praise in Chapter 2 shows she found strength not just in her son, but in her Savior.

 Reflection Prompt:

Write one short "line of praise" to God, even if you're still in the middle of your waiting.

 To-Go Box

- God sees the pain you don't know how to explain.
- Honest prayer is better than fake peace.
- God can give you peace in your heart before the answer shows up in your hands.

 Prayer

"Lord, thank You for seeing Hannah's tears. Give me peace while I wait, and help me trust that You haven't forgotten me. In Jesus' name, amen."

BM2: Lesson 3 – Abram

No Heir, Wait Here

 Theme: Trusting God when the wait is long

 Background Text: Genesis 15:1–6; 16:1–5; 17:1–8

 Key Verse: Genesis 15:6 (WEB)

“He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness.”

Appetizer – Honest Questions Genesis 15:1–3

¹ After these things Yahweh’s word came to Abram in a vision, saying, ‘Don’t be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward.’ ² Abram said, ‘Lord Yahweh, what will you give me, since I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?’ ³ Abram said, ‘Behold, to me you have given no children; and, behold, one born in my house is my heir.’

Abram was blunt: “God, what does it matter if I’m still childless?” It’s okay to ask God “how” and “when.” Faith isn’t pretending you aren’t confused; faith is bringing your confusion to the One who has the answers.

Main Course

Bite 1 – Count the Stars, Gen 15:4–6

⁴ Behold, Yahweh’s word came to him, saying, ‘This man will not be your heir, but he who will come out of your own body will be your heir.’ ⁵ Yahweh brought him outside, and said, ‘Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them.’ He said to Abram, ‘So shall your offspring be.’ ⁶ He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness.

God gave Abram a visual aid—stars in the sky. He told Abram that his legacy would be just as vast and impossible to count. Abram chose to believe God’s word over his own biology. When your reality looks empty, look up at what God has already spoken over your life.

Reflection Question:

What are some “stars” (Scriptures) God has used to encourage you during a wait?

Bite 2 – When We Try to “Help” God, Gen 16:1–4

¹ Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, bore him no children. She had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. ² Sarai said to Abram, ‘See now, Yahweh has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my servant. It may be that I will obtain children by her.’ Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

³ After Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai took Hagar the Egyptian, her servant, and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife. ⁴ He went to Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

Abram and Sarai tried to "force" the promise through Hagar. This "shortcut" created a mess that lasted for generations. We often create more "through" for ourselves when we try to take the wheel away from God. God doesn't need your help; He needs your trust.

Reflection Question:

Where are you tempted to rush into your own plan because God seems slow?

Bite 3 – Name Changed, Same Promise, Gen 17:1–5, 7

¹ When Abram was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abram and said to him, ‘I am God Almighty. Walk before me, and be blameless. ² I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.’ ³ Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying, ⁴ ‘As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of nations.

⁵ Your name will no longer be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. ⁷ I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant...’

Years later, God changed Abram’s name to Abraham ("Father of many"). God was calling him what he would be before he saw it. Your identity is fixed by God’s promise, not your current progress.

Reflection Question:

How does it help to remember what God calls you when your situation doesn’t look like it?

Dessert – Faith Rewarded Through Time, Romans 4:20–21

²⁰ Yet, looking to the promise of God, he didn’t waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, ²¹ and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform.

Abraham's story says:

1. Real faith is honest enough to ask hard questions.
2. Real faith can still stumble, but God picks it back up.
3. God's timing is perfect, even when it feels "late."

Reflection Question:

What is there an area where you need to stop forcing outcomes and start trusting God again?

To-Go Box

- God isn't scared of your honest questions.
- Shortcuts can complicate your life even when God still loves you.
- God's promises stand, even when your patience doesn't.

Write one sentence: "God, help me trust You with _____."

Prayer

"God Almighty, forgive me for the times I've tried to rush Your plan. Help me to walk before You with a trusting heart. In Jesus' name, amen."

Personal Prayer Space

Write about one area where you want to slow down and trust God's timing:

Activity – "True or False"

1. Abraham never questioned God. (T / F)
2. Sarai suggested using Hagar. (T / F)
3. God changed Abram's name. (T / F)

† BM2 — Lesson 4: Chronic Conditions

💧 Victory Through the Blood

📘 Theme: From “unclean” to whole

📖 Background Text: Luke 8:42–48

🔑 Key Verse: Luke 8:48 (WEB)

He said to her, ‘Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.’

✨ Author’s Foreword (Intro/Reflection Setup)

“Unclean, Unclean, Unclean!”

In the Jewish law, as depicted in the Pentateuch, many illnesses and conditions could make a person “unclean.” Those labeled unclean could not enter the temple, attend gatherings, or move freely in the community. Some were restricted to their homes or pushed outside normal society. They had to announce their condition whenever they came near people.

make

Imagine living in a world where you had to brandish your “dirty secret” like the old Scarlet Letter—exposed, ashamed, and isolated.

Now imagine carrying that weight not for a few days, but for twelve years.

📖 Appetizer – Twelve Years of Pain, Luke 8:42b–43a

“...But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. ⁴³ A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years...”

For twelve years, this woman lived as an outcast. She was broke and broken. She was stuck in the “through.” Sometimes the hardest part isn’t the pain, it’s the feeling that society has forgotten you.

You’ve tried every YouTube remedy, every social media hack, every doctor, every urgent care, every “miracle” treatment and payment plan... and still no solution. Your resources are drained, and the situation hasn’t changed. That was the woman’s reality.

Imagine having a condition that silently drains you from the inside for over a decade. No clear answers. No lasting relief. Just ongoing pain, shame, and exhaustion.

💬 Reflection Question:

What kind of problem today might make someone feel like they're "unclean"?

Main Course – Faith That Reaches Out

Bite 1 – A Desperate Touch, Luke 8:43b–44

“...who had spent all her living on physicians and could not be healed by any, came behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak. Immediately the flow of her blood stopped.”

If you've ever been to a concert of a popular person, you know how thick the crowd is to just get close to the stage. ...She didn't ask for the microphone, or a front-row seat, or a special audience. She just wanted to get close enough to touch Jesus—close enough to reach for the One everyone else was only crowding around.

Well, Jesus was on his way to heal a sick child, when she reached for the hem in a "risk-it-all" move. She wasn't even supposed to be there.

Faith is often a desperate reach toward Jesus when you have nothing left to lose. Her faith pulled power directly from the Source, and that was the difference between the people who were there just to be there and a woman you refused to be denied wholeness (or a cure).

Reflection Question:

What does it look like for you to “reach for Jesus” today?

Bite 2 – “Who Touched Me?” Luke 8:45–47

⁴⁵ Jesus said, ‘Who touched me?’ When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, ‘Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’ ’ ⁴⁶ But Jesus said, ‘Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.’ ⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.”

Jesus stopped everything to find her. He wasn't mad; He wanted her to be known. He didn't just heal her body; He healed her shame by letting her tell her story out loud. God doesn't want you to slip away; He wants to give you a public testimony. Your wholeness matters.

Reflection Question:

Why did Jesus want her to speak up instead of slipping away?

Bite 3 – New Name, New Peace, Luke 8:48

⁴⁸ He said to her, ‘Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.’

Jesus called her Daughter. In one word, she went from a social outcast to part of the family of God. Her faith didn't just stop the bleeding; it started a new life. Jesus always gives you more than what you originally came for. He provided not only what she wanted (which was to be cured), but what she needed, that is wholeness.

Author's Commentary

Her long struggle ended with a single word of affirmation from Jesus. When He calls you Daughter or Son, He doesn't just fix your issue—He restores your place in the family. The Woman with the Issue of Blood is a story that many can relate to you having a problem and unfortunately making God or prayer your “last resort”, it's like the dreaded red button under the glass that you do NOT want to push! Push - Pray Until Something Happens - let your faith connect with the Word and power of God. Nobody is saying don't go to the doctor, but the message is about bringing your faith to the doctor's office and bring your ISSUES to the altar.

So many of us have suffered in things for a long while, and Jesus is waiting on us to do our part and trust him with it. Break through the doubt, press through the challenges and arrive at the hem of God and the spiritual connection to the healing that was released when our Savior was tied and hung on a tree. Through an long term unclean messed up, messy situation - though her blood was filthy his Blood is cleansing and through it there is victory to everyone who is willing to accept all the benefits of being redeemed, hallelujah!

Dessert

Her condition made her “unclean” to people, but her faith made her a focus for God. Jesus' blood is the only thing that can truly wash away the labels life has stuck on you.

Reflection Question:

Finish this: “Jesus, I want to trade the label _____ for what

You say: _____.”

To-Go Box

- No one is too broken for Jesus.
- Faith doesn't have to be loud; it can be a quiet reach.
- Jesus restores identity, not just health.

Write one sentence: "Jesus, thank You that You call me _____."

Prayer

"Jesus, thank You for seeing me. Replace every negative label I've carried with Your love. In Your name, amen."

Activity – "Crossword Clues"

1. The problem lasted _____ years.
2. Jesus said, "Your _____ has made you well."
3. The woman touched the _____ of His cloak.
4. Jesus called her _____.

Appendix – Breakfast Month 2 (YE) Answer Key

Theme: The Art of Through – Youth Edition

Lesson 1 – Joseph: The Young Dreamer

Activity – “Pit, Prison, Palace”

This activity is reflective, so responses will vary. Use student answers to gauge where they feel they are and how they plan to stay faithful.

Typical mappings you can look for:

- PIT – “I feel dropped/ignored.”
Connected to rejection, betrayal, or feeling thrown aside (like Joseph in the pit and being sold).
- PRISON – “I feel stuck/limited.”
Connected to feeling trapped, delayed, or held back (like Joseph in prison).
- PALACE – “I see God’s favor opening doors.”
Connected to seasons of opportunity and visible favor (like Joseph ruling in Egypt).

For their written response, look for:

- A clear description of which stage they relate to now, and
- At least one concrete way they can stay faithful to God in that place (prayer, integrity, obedience, serving, wise choices, etc.).

Lesson 2 – Hannah: Barren but Not Lifeless

Activity – “Hannah’s Hope Steps”

Part 1 – Circle One Word for Each Step

Part 2 – Short Response

Answers will differ. Healthy responses often mention:

- Bringing pain honestly to God,
 - Trusting that God sees and remembers,
 - Being encouraged to keep praying and hoping even while waiting.
