Bonus Lessons Instructor Introduction

Instructor, this bonus section is intentionally information-rich, so it's not meant to be taught cold turkey. It works best after your group has established the 4C's, because now students can apply everything together: the words we use, where they come from, and how God reveals Himself through names, timing, and seasons. Move through this content in layers—don't feel pressure to teach every detail in one sitting. Think of these pages as a pantry, not a single plate.

How to Teach It Without Overload: Use a simple rhythm: Teach → Discuss → Practice. Teach one main truth with one scripture anchor, discuss what it means, then practice through prayer, journaling, or a quick review round. If time is tight, choose one lane per gathering (Names or Numbers/Seasons), and return to the other in your next session.

Lesson 1: Names of God

Students will learn what God's names mean and why they matter—so prayers stop sounding random and start sounding rooted and confident. This lesson helps them recognize how God shows up (peace, provision, healing, guidance) and reminds them: He's not far... He's faithful. Encourage students to choose 2–3 names that match their current needs and turn those names into prayer language for the week.

Lesson 2: Numbers, Times & Seasons

This lesson connects the “counting” language in scripture to real life—because wisdom isn't just knowing what time it is, but knowing what to do with it. Students will explore what numbers like 3, 7, 12, and 40 often point to, and how God uses seasons (waiting, growth, pruning, breakthrough) to shape us on purpose—one day at a time. Keep it grounded: the goal is discernment, not speculation—recognizing repeated patterns God uses in scripture to build faith and maturity.

The Heart Posture (For Both Lessons): God is about relationship, not just ritual. So here's the challenge: What do you think is true about God—and what does the Truth say? These lessons invite students to move past a “God, fix it!” moment and into a real conversation with their Heavenly Father. He hears. He sees. He knows. Encourage them to take notes, ask questions, look up scriptures, and keep turning the page—because God isn't trying to impress them; He's trying to meet them.

Lesson 5: The Names of God

Understanding the Sacred Language

Theme: God's names reveal His character and help us trust Him.

Background Text: Exodus 3:13–15; Isaiah 9:6; Matthew 1:21–23; John 14:13–17

Key Verse: Psalm 9:10

(WEB) “Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, Yahweh, have not forsaken those who seek you.”

(KJV) ¹⁰ And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

Appetizer – Names That Carry Weight

Have students read the Appetizer from their book.

Discuss:

- “In the Bible, names are not just labels; they carry meaning, calling, and character.”
 - Ask: “Which name of God or title feels most personal to you right now?”

Main Course Understanding the Divine Names and Titles

Bite 1 – YHWH (יהוה) – The Self-Existent One, Ex 3:14–15

(WEB) God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM,” and he said, “You shall tell the children of Israel this: ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” God said moreover to Moses, “You shall tell the children of Israel this, ‘Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.’ This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations.”

(KJV) And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

The personal name God revealed to Moses is represented by the four Hebrew letters Yod-Hey-Vav-Hey (YHWH).

In Hebrew, God's personal name is written with four letters: Y-H-W-H (יהוה), often called the Tetragrammaton. Ancient Hebrew writing left out vowels, so over time people stopped saying this name out loud and read “Adonai” (“Lord”) instead. Later, scholars combined the consonants YHWH with the vowels from “Adonai,” and as the name passed through Latin into English, letters shifted—Y became J, and W was written as V—so the form “Jehovah” appeared in older Bibles. Today many scholars think the original pronunciation sounded more like “Yahweh,” but the key point is that God chose to share a personal name, showing He is not just a distant power but a God who wants to be known.

Key teaching points:

- God shares a personal covenant name so He can be known (relationship, not distance).
- “I AM” points to God’s eternal, self-existent nature—unchanging even when life changes.
- (YE) Names shape confidence in prayer—call God by what He has already been for you.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you trust God’s character even when your circumstances are unstable? YES / NO

Guidance:

If many say NO/UNSURE, normalize it (“Moses needed reassurance too.”) and re-read “This is my name forever.” Then invite one sentence prayers: “Yahweh, I need You to be _____ for me.”

Bite 2 – Yeshua HaMashiach (יֵשׁוּעַ הַמָּשִׁיחַ), Matthew 1:21

(WEB) You will name Him Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.

(KJV) “And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Key teaching points:

- Yeshua means “Yahweh saves”—salvation is His mission, not our performance.
- The English “Jesus Christ” is really “Jesus the Christ”
- “Christ” (Christos) and “Messiah” (Mashiach) are the same title in two languages
- Messiah/Christ = Anointed One—purpose + authority.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you believe Jesus can save you from what keeps pulling you back? YES / NO

Guidance:

Keep it practical: saving can include sin, shame, cycles, fear, and identity confusion. If a student shares something heavy, affirm and follow up after session per your care process.

Bite 3 – Ruach HaKodesh (רוּחַ הַקֹּדֶשׁ) – The Holy Spirit, John 14:26

(WEB) But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you.

(KJV) But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

Key teaching points:

- Ruach = breath/wind/spirit—God’s presence that brings life, conviction, and comfort.
- Use John 14:26 as the anchor: the Holy Spirit teaches and reminds us of Jesus’ words.
- It signifies the living presence of God breathing life, comfort, and conviction into His people.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you believe the Holy Spirit can guide you in real-life decisions this week? YES / NO

Bite 4 – YHWH Lammēd (יהוה לַמֵּד) – The Lord Our Teacher, Isaiah 48:17b

(WEB) “I am Yahweh your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go.

(KJV) I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

Key teaching points:

- God teaches what is good and leads us in the path we should go—correction is care.
- (YE) Wisdom is obedience in motion, not just information.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you want God’s direction more than your own comfort? YES / NO

Guidance:

If many say NO, ask: “What makes God’s direction feel hard?” Keep it safe—no debates. Close with: “Lord, teach me what is good for me.”

God is not only Savior but Teacher — revealing truth line upon line and leading us to wisdom. When you see the preface “I am” it is a declaration of a truth of what he is to you.

Bite 5 – Selah (סֶלָה), Reflect Ps 3:4

(WEB) I cry to Yahweh with my voice, and he answers me out of his holy hill. Selah.

(KJV) I cried unto the Lord with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

Key teaching points:

- Selah is a Spirit-led pause—reflect, breathe, and let truth sink in.
- Youth connection: silence isn’t punishment; it’s processing with God.
- Found 74 times in the Psalms

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you avoid quiet because it makes you reflect too much? YES / NO

Guidance:

Model a short pause. Then ask: “What thought keeps repeating in your mind? What does Scripture say back to it?”

Do a 10-second “Selah-style” pause: invite students to whisper, “Holy Spirit, guide me.” Then ask for one practical area: school, friends, relationships, habits.

Bite 6 – Amen (אָמֵן), 2 Cor 1:20

(WEB): ²⁰ For however many are the promises of God, in him is the “Yes.” Therefore also through him is the “Amen”, to the glory of God through us.

(KJV): ²⁰ For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

Key teaching points:

- Amen is agreement—“It is true / let it be so.”
- Shift from habit to faith: say Amen when you mean it.
- From aman — “to confirm, to be faithful.”

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you sometimes say “Amen” out of habit instead of faith? YES / NO

Guidance:

Practice: have students pray one sentence (no speeches), then say “Amen” as a decision. Remind them: agreement changes posture.

Bite 7 – Hallelujah (הַלְלוּ־יָהּ), Ps 150:1

(WEB) Praise Yah! Praise God in his sanctuary! Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power!

(KJV) Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Key teaching points:

- A compound of Hallel (praise) + Yah (short for YHWH). Meaning “Praise the Lord!”
- Praise can be worship and warfare—especially in hard seasons.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Can you praise God even if nothing changes today? YES / NO

Bite 8 – The True Vine, John 15:1

(WEB) “I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer.”

(KJV) I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

Key teaching points:

- Jesus (Yeshua) is the life source—abiding produces fruit; striving produces burnout.
- Youth connection: spiritual habits are how we stay connected.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you try to do life without staying connected to God? YES / NO

Guidance:

Ask: “What’s one ‘connection habit’ you can do daily for 5 minutes—Word, prayer, worship, journaling?”

Bite 9 – The Son of God, Matt 16:16

(WEB) ¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

(KJV) ¹⁶ And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

Key teaching points:

- Confession matters: Jesus is not only teacher—He is Messiah and Son of God.
- Identity confession shapes discipleship and choices.
- This title declares both His divinity and His relationship with the Father.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you follow Jesus as Lord, or mostly as inspiration? YES / NO

Guidance:

Keep it non-shaming. Invite honesty and close with: “Jesus, reveal Yourself to me.”

Dessert – What you need— He is; The Answer to All things, Isa 9:6

(WEB) ⁶ For a child is born to us. A son is given to us; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

(KJV) ⁶ For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

No matter how He is named — YHWH, Yeshua, Ruach HaKodesh, or Abba — His nature remains one: holy, eternal, and faithful.

Group Reflection → Which name of God speaks most to your current need or revelation?

Focus on clarifying and reinforcing key names:

Prompt students:

- “How does learning what these names mean change how you pray or worship?”

Lesson 6— Times and Seasons: God’s Order in Days and Numbers

Theme: God uses times, numbers, and seasons with purpose.

Background Text: Genesis 1:14–18; Leviticus 23; Leviticus 25:8–12; Ecclesiastes 3:1–11

Key Verse: Ecclesiastes 3:1 (WEB)

“To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven.”

Appetizer – Methodical Seasons, Genesis 8:22 (WEB)

“²²While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night will not cease.”

Ask:

- “Have you ever felt ‘behind’ or ‘out of season’ compared to others?”

Connect:

“God is a God of order and timing. He uses seasons in nature and in our lives—nothing is wasted.”

Main Course

Bite 1 – Numbers sand the Candence of Eternity, Gen 1:14

(WEB) ¹⁴ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

(KJV) ¹⁴ God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs to mark seasons, days, and years;

We often read Scripture and see God working through patterns—whether it’s creation, appointed feasts, or periods of trial. These numbers and seasons aren’t superstitions—they reflect God’s order and purpose, reminding us to trust His timing. As we explore these patterns, we learn to see God’s hand in every season of life.

Key teaching points:

- Numbers in Scripture often repeat to highlight themes (rest, testing, authority, freedom).
- The point is wisdom and discernment—recognizing what God may be doing in a season.

Youth Check-in (YES / NO):

Do you assume delays mean God said “no” instead of “not yet”? YES / NO

Guidance:

If many say YES, reframe: “Delay can be development.” Ask: “What might God be building in you during this season?”

Now, let's look at a simple table of key biblical numbers. Each entry offers a scriptural reference and a brief meaning—a starting point for deeper study.

Number	Meaning	Scripture Example
1	Unity; Beginning	Deuteronomy 6:4
2	Witness; Agreement	Matthew 18:19
3	Divine Completeness	Matthew 28:19
4	Creation; Divine Order	Revelation 7:1
5	Grace	Genesis 43:34
6	Man; Labor	Revelation 13:18
7	Completion; Rest	Genesis 2:2
8	New Beginnings	2 Peter 2:5
9	Fruitfulness; Judgment	Galatians 5:22
10	Law; Responsibility	Exodus 20:1–17
12	Government; Authority	Revelation 21:12
40	Testing / Transition	Matthew 4:2
50	Jubilee; Freedom	Leviticus 25:10
666	Number of the Beast	Rev 13:18

Key patterns:

- Common number themes in Scripture:
 - 7 – completion/rest
 - 8 – new beginning
 - 12 – government/authority
 - 40 – testing/transition
 - 50 – Jubilee (freedom/restoration)

Key words:

- Shabbat – rest; Sabbath.

God built ‘rhythm’ into creation—signs, seasons, days, and years—so His people could track time with purpose.

Help students see:

- We don't worship numbers; we worship God, who sometimes uses numbers and seasons to mark what He's doing.
- Jubilee (Leviticus 25) shows God's heart for freedom and reset.

Bite 2 — Calendar, Seasons and Feasts, Lev 23:2

(WEB) Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The set feasts of Yahweh, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.'

(KJV) Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the Lord, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

Key teaching points:

- Mo'ed = appointed time—God builds rhythms and reminders into faith.
- Biblical day often runs sunset-to-sunset; God can start new things in what looks like night.
- Feasts retell God's story: deliverance → formation → repentance → renewal.

In Western culture, we often think of a day as running from sunrise to sunrise. In biblical Jewish culture, a day is commonly counted from sunset to sunset—that's why many Jewish holidays begin at sundown. It's a simple but powerful reminder: God can start something new even when it looks like "night."

Connecting biblical times, seasons, and God's appointed celebrations (feasts) to a calendar helps bring Scripture to life—because God is not only the God of "back then," but the God of right now. As you review the months and cycles below, look for the patterns God repeats again and again: deliverance, formation, repentance, and renewal. These aren't just dates on a chart—these are reminders of how God moves in history and in our lives.

Jewish Month	Gregorian Equivalent	Primary Focus / Festival
1. Nisan	March / April	Passover, Unleavened Bread, First fruits
2. Iyar	April / May	Counting the Omer
3. Sivan	May / June	Shavuot (Pentecost / Giving of the Law)
4. Tammuz	June / July	Fast of the 17th of Tammuz
5. Av	July / August	Tisha B'Av (Temple remembrance)
6. Elul	August / September	Repentance / Preparation for Rosh Hashanah
7. Tishrei	September / October	Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot
8. Cheshvan	October / November	A "quiet" month (no major feasts)
9. Kislev	November / December	Hanukkah (Feast of Dedication)
10. Tevet	December / January	Fast of the 10th of Tevet
11. Shevat	January / February	Tu B'Shevat (New Year for Trees)
12. Adar	February / March	Purim (Esther's victory)

Note: Tishrei (September/October) begins the civil year with Rosh Hashanah. In some leap years on the Hebrew calendar, an extra month is added to keep the lunar cycle aligned with the solar seasons.

Season (Cycle)	Key Holidays / Observances	Scripture Reference (examples)
Spring: Redemption	Passover + Unleavened Bread	Exodus 12; Leviticus 23
Late Spring / Early Summer: Covenant & Harvest	Shavuot (Feast of Weeks)	Leviticus 23; Deuteronomy 16
Summer: Reflection	A season of reflection and remembrance	Psalms 90:12 ("count our days")
Fall: Repentance & Ingathering	Trumpets / Atonement / Tabernacles themes	Leviticus 23
Winter: Dedication / Light	Feast of Dedication (Hanukkah) themes	John 10:22
Late Winter / Early Spring: Turning / Joy	Purim (deliverance)	Esther 9
Land-Cycle (multi-year)	Sabbath year & Jubilee patterns	Leviticus 25

Dessert – God’s Timing, Leviticus 25:10

(WEB) ¹⁰ You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee to you; and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family.

(KJV) ¹⁰ And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

God’s timing always leads to freedom — not fatigue.
